45. The number and local jurisdiction of Munsifs, to be fixed in Benares by the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut, shall be such, where circumstances will admit, that no defendant shall be obliged to proceed further than five Coss to answer a suit. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 14. C. 5.

46. Instead of a summons, a notice only is to be issued on the defendant, containing a short statement of the demand, and requiring him to appear, in person or by Vakeel, and deliver an answer on a specified day. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 2. § 2. C. 1. A. D. 1806

47. Such notice is to be served on any accredited Agent of the defendant, at the station of the Court, empowered and willing to receive such notice and to give an acknowledgment for it. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 2. § 2. C. 2.

48. Otherwise, it shall be served, through the Nazir, by one Peon, on the party if within the Court's jurisdiction; or on his agent, if the party be absent; or on the person in charge of the property, to which the suit relates; or shall be transmitted for service, as above, to the Judge of any other Zilla, in which the party resides: and the person, on whom it may be served, shall be merely required to endorse his acknowledgment on it. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 2. § 2. C. 3.

49. If the defendant shall avoid service of the notice, publication shall be made for his appearance; and, should he not then appear, or, if a defendant, served with the notice, shall not appear or give answer, the plaintiff may proceed against him ex parte. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 2. § 3.

50. No security shall be required from a defendant, unless deemed necessary by the Court: but, on proof of the defendant intending to abscond, the Court may issue originally, or at any subsequent time, the usual process requiring security for his appearance. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 2. § 4.

51. And on proof of the defendant intending to dispose of, or remove, his property, may call for Malzaminee security in a sum deemed sufficient; and, on failure thereof, may attach property to the amount of the suit. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 2. § 5. C. 1.

52. Such attachment shall be made by publication on the spot; and all subsequent private alienations of the property shall be void; and any removal of the property shall

55. Native Commissioners are to issue merely a notice to defendants in the mode prescribed by Section 2 of this Regulation; and shall not require security, except on proof, that the defendant is about to abscond; and the Judge or Register, when they issue process in suits referred to a Commissioner, shall issue such as are prescribed by this Regulation. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 2. § 9.

56. The Civil Courts are not competent to provide in their decrees, or subsequent to the decree, for the payment of the sum decreed by instalments, where property of the defendant or of his sureties is forthcoming; unless consented to by the plaintiff; and except a short postponement of the sale of property be deemed equitable. But, when no property can be pointed out, the Court may accept of an engagement with security for the payment by instalments without interest; and the defendant, if in custody, shall be discharged; and shall not be liable to further arrest on the same judgment, except for failure of his engagement. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 2. § 10.

57. If defendants, or their sureties, confined in execution, shall deliver to the Court, on oath, a statement of all property real and personal belonging to them, whether held in their own name or in any other name, or jointly with any other person, and the Court shall be satisfied by an inquiry into the truth of the statement, and into the validity of the objections thereto, that the parties have no other means, the Court may release such insolvent debtors and their sureties, with or without security for their appearance, after selling such property or any part thereof, which the Court may deem proper: but such parties may be again arrested on the proof of fraudulent concealment; and any other property, subsequently possessed by them, may be also brought to sale: and all proceedings in such cases are open to revision by the Superior Courts. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 2. § 11.

58. The subsistence money to defendants in confinement is to be recovered, with the other costs, from any property forthcoming; but they shall not be detained on this account. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 2. § 12.

30. And in any particular case, where he apprehends the absconding of a defaulter or of his surety, may himself arrest them and send them to the Collector. Beng. 1799 R. 7. § 25.

31. If any sharers in a joint estate impede or oppose the Ameen deputed to make the division, they may be fined in the discretion of the Governor General in Council on the report of the Collector and Board. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 1. § 13. C. 8. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 26. § 51. C. 3. A. D. 1801

DEYUT.

1. When a prisoner is convicted of murder, the Court of Circuit shall cause reference to be made to the heir of the slain; and if he require Deyut, the Court of Circuit, without passing sentence, shall send the record of the trial to the Nizamut Adaulut. Beng. 1793 R. 9. § 52. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 22. A. D. 1793
Modified
1797 R. 4 § 3

2. On the reference of such a trial, if a prisoner be declared liable to suffer death by the law in the event of the heir of the slain requiring it, the will of the heir to require Deyut (price of blood), in lieu of Kiffas (retaliation), shall not be allowed to operate; but the Nizamut Adaulut, if they approve of the proceedings held on the trial, shall sentence the prisoner to death. Beng. 1793 R. 9. § 76. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 22. Re-enacted
1797 R. 4 § 4

3. The custom among the hill people of Bhagulpoor, of leaving the option to the heir of the slain to demand pecuniary compensation, in certain cases, for murder, shall not be allowed to operate on trials of prisoners held before the assembly of hill chiefs. Beng. 1796 R. 1. § 13. C. 4. A. D. 1796

A. D. 1797
Modified
1801 R. 8 § 5 4. If on a trial for murder the Futwa should declare Deyut to be the whole or a part of the legal punishment, the Court of Circuit may commute it into such period of imprisonment as may be deemed adequate to the offence; and shall refer the trial to the Nizamut Adaulut, if the imprisonment be for life, or if they disapprove of the Futwa. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 4. § 3. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 7. § 15. C. 2.

5. And the Nizamut Adaulut may pass such final sentence as may appear consonant to justice and conformable to the Muhamedan law with the modifications authorized by the Regulations. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 4. § 4. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 11.

6. And, if the Futwa declare a prisoner liable to Deyut for any acts other than homicide, the Court of Circuit may similarly commute it into imprisonment, referring to the Nizamut Adaulut sentences of imprisonment for life; and the Nizamut Adaulut may confirm, mitigate or remit the imprisonment. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 14. § 4. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 7. § 39. C. 2.

7. The Nizamut Adaulut may require from the Magistrates reports of prisoners confined indefinitely under sentences of the Naib Nazim, or of the Benares native Courts, or of the Courts of Circuit, till payment of Deyut; and may grant such relief as each case may in justice require: individuals, having claims on such prisoners, may prefer them to the Magistrates, who shall report thereon to the Nizamut Adaulut; and the Nizamut Adaulut shall submit the case with their sentiments to the Governor General in Council. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 14. § 2.

A. D. 1801 8. The rules of Section 3, Regulation 4 of 1797, respecting Deyut, are not applicable to any sentence of Deyut in case of persons killing one individual in the malicious intention of killing another; nor in that of persons committing a homicide in the deliberate intention of committing an unlawful act. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 6. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 6.

9. In homicides clearly by misadventure in the prosecution of a lawful act, the Court of Circuit shall not sentence the prisoner to imprisonment, or to any other punishment, in lieu of the Deyut awarded by the Futwa. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 6. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 6.

10. The distinction of the Muhamedan law, awarding Deyut, when a person intending to murder one individual accidentally kills another, and in all cases in which any mistake or accident may occur either in the design of the person committing the homicide, or in the act whereby the homicide is committed, is superseded. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8.

11. In the first case, the law officers shall be required to declare what would have been the punishment if the prisoner had committed the murder intended by him. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 2.

12. And the same rule is applicable to all other cases, in which the prisoner shall be clearly convicted of having committed the homicide with a murderous intention; or with a deliberate intention of committing any crime, which, if committed, would have rendered him liable to suffer death. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 3. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 3.

- A. D. 1801 Modified 1803 R. 49 § 26 30. When an appeal is dismissed in a Provincial Court, on the ground of some default, without investigation of the merits, the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut may admit an appeal from such dismissal, whatever be the amount of the suit, and may order the Provincial Court to revive and try it on the merits; but shall fine the appellant if such appeal be litigious. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 2. § 8. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 5. § 10. C. 13.
- ditto 31. The same principle is to be applied by Provincial Courts of Appeal, to appeals dismissed by the Zilla and City Judges. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 2. § 9. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 4. § 12. C. 12.
- ditto 32. And by Zilla and City Judges, to appeals dismissed by their Registers. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 2. § 9. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 4. § 12. C. 13.
- A. D. 1802 33. When a suit or appeal is dismissed, and the plaintiff or appellant is not found to possess property sufficient to make good the costs, and it shall become necessary, in consequence of the insufficiency of the sureties, to levy from the defendant or respondent the fees of his pleader, the Court may levy from him such part only of the fee as may appear an adequate compensation for the pleader's labour, leaving the remainder to be recovered from any property which may be subsequently found belonging to the plaintiff or appellant. Beng. Ben. 1802 R. 3. § 3. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 10. § 35.

34. When the suit or appeal of a pauper is dismissed in a Zilla or City Court and declared groundless and vexatious, the Judge or Registrar shall immediately carry into execution the rule of commitment whether he appeal from the judgment or not; and, if he appeal to the Provincial Court, and his appeal should be deemed groundless and vexatious, the Provincial Court shall commit him to jail for a period not exceeding six months including the former imprisonment; and the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut, if they deem a pauper's appeal groundless and vexatious, shall commit him to jail for not more than twelve months including his former imprisonment. Beng. Ben. 1802 R. 3. § 6. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 14. § 10.

35. The appeal, allowed to a Provincial Court, from the dismissal of an appeal by a Zilla or City Judge for default, is not precluded by the rules respecting other appeals. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 26. C. 1. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 9. C. 5.

36. In such appeals, and similar appeals to the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut, no proceedings need be held beyond what may be requisite on consideration of the stated ground for dismissing the previous appeal. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 26. C. 2. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 9. C. 6.

37. No institution fee shall be levied on such appeals; but, if found litigious, the appellants shall be fined. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 26. C. 3. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 9. C. 6.

38. Notice shall be given to the respondent, but without requiring his appearance unless deemed necessary; and, if either party employ a Vakeel, the Court may award him an adequate fee not exceeding one fourth of the fees on a regular suit. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 26. C. 4. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 9. C. 6.

39. No security is to be required from either party, except for staying execution. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 26. C. 5. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 9. C. 6.

The Mint Committee may direct the dismissal of any native officer of the mint, although a previous reference shall not have been made to them by the Mint and Assay Master; reporting to the Governor General in Council their proceedings and the officer's defence. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 11. § 4. C. 2:

DISPOSSESSION.

1. Any person, having a claim to disputed land or crops in the possession of another, is prohibited from attempting to possess himself thereof by force; but is to prefer his claim to the Civil Court. Beng. 1793 R. 49. § 2. ext. Ben. (and declared to extend to all disputes regarding tanks or reservoirs, wells or water courses) 1795 R. 14. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 32. § 2. A. D. 1793

2. If any claimant take forcible possession, the Court, on complaint from the party dispossessed, shall, on proof of his previous possession, without entering into the merits of the dispossessor's claims, cause the land or crops to be restored to him, or the value of crops not forthcoming to be paid to him, with costs and equitable damages: leaving the dispossessor to prefer a regular suit for the disputed property. Beng. 1793 R. 49. § 3. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 14. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 32. § 3.

3. Whether the claimant shall have been present or not. Beng. 1793 R. 49. § 5. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 14. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 32. § 5.

4. If, in an attempt to take forcible possession, any person be killed, wounded or violently beaten, the offender, on proof of the complainant's previous possession, shall be adjudged to have forfeited to the complainant all right and title in the disputed property; and, whether the actual dispossession be proved or not, the offender, and all persons aiding him in the attempt, shall be committed for trial before the Court of Circuit. Beng. 1793 R. 49. § 4. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 14. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 32. § 4.

5. And if the claimant were not present, the persons, who were actually present, shall be dealt with as above; and the claimant, if they acted by his order, shall be proceeded against, in the Criminal Court, as if he had been present. Beng. 1793 R. 49. § 5. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 14. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 32. § 5.

A. D. 1793 6. All persons are prohibited from arming themselves, or entertaining armed men, for the purpose of guarding possession: if any claimant shall go armed, or connive at the assembling of armed men, to take possession, and the other party shall go armed to retain possession, and a fray shall ensue in which any person shall be killed, wounded or violently beaten, the land and crops in dispute shall be forfeited to Government; and both parties, and all persons aiding them, shall be committed for trial before the Criminal Court. Beng. 1793 R. 49. § 6. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 14. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 32. § 6.

A. D. 1798 7. When lands or crops are liable to be forfeited to Government for affrays under Section 6, Regulation 49 of 1793, the Vakeel of Government shall sue for the forfeiture on the part of Government; and the judgment of the Zilla or City Court may be appealed. Beng. Ben. 1798 R. 5. § 7.

8. Decisions of Zilla or City Courts, on summary suits for dispossession under Sections 3, 4 and 5, Regulation 49 of 1793, are not appealable; unless the grounds of the appeal be the irrelevancy of the Regulation to the case. Beng. Ben. 1798 R. 5. § 7.

9. No institution fee is to be taken on such suits, nor on appeals from decisions on such suits. Beng. Ben. 1798 R. 5. § 7. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 27. C. 2.

10. And the pleader's fees on such suits are to be one fourth of the fee on regular suits. Beng. Ben. 1798 R. 5. § 13. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 10. § 31. C. 4.

A. D. 1805 11. Summary inquiries for recovering possession of land are to be conducted, as far as practicable, by the Judges and Assistant Judges in person: when the Judge, or Assistant Judge, from the urgency of other business, may not be able to make such inquiry with requisite expedition, they may be referred to the Register if the cause of action be such as to be referrible: but Judges may at any time recall such suits; and may, in any case requiring it, revise and amend any order passed thereon by the Register. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 2. § 12.

12. A Register, authorized to act as Judge during the absence of the Judge, may also conduct such inquiries. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 2. § 14. C. 1.

7. Or in cases where the evidence is deemed incompetent by the Muhamedan law solely on the grounds of the witnesses not professing the Muhamedan religion. Beng. 1793 R. 9 § 56. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 22. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 7. § 25.

8. When the sentence of the Court of Circuit directs a pecuniary compensation to the party injured, the Magistrate shall carry it into execution by the process for enforcing the decrees of Civil Courts. Beng. 1793 R. 9. § 22. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 4. C. 1. Rescinded 1797 R. 24 § 6

A. D. 1793 9. A copy of the sentence of the Nizamut Adaulut shall be sent within three days or sooner under the seal of the Nizamut Adaulut and the signature of the Registrar, to the Court of Circuit, who shall issue a warrant to the proper Magistrate for carrying it into execution; and the Magistrate shall cause the sentence to be executed without delay, and return the warrant with a signed endorsement, certifying the manner of execution: warrants so returned shall remain with the Court of Circuit, except warrants for capital punishment which shall be forwarded to the Nizamut Adaulut. Eng. 1793 R. 9. § 78. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 12. Gen. Priv. 1803 R. 18. § 13.

A. D. 1795 10. Sentences of the Court of Circuit in Benares on Brahmens and their accomplices convicted of establishing a Koorh, or of being prepared to kill their women and children, are to be transmitted in ten days to the Nizamut Adaulut without any intermediate suspension of the execution; and, until the receipt of the final order of the Nizamut Adaulut, shall be considered in full force and carried into effect. Ben. 1795 R. 21. § 4.

11. By imprisonment of the party until he pay the fine awarded, or give security for the payment in six months, with security for future good behaviour. Ben. 1795 R. 21. § 3.

12. The Court of Circuit shall pass sentence of death on such Brahmens and their accomplices if any persons be burnt to death or otherwise lose their lives in consequence of the Koorh being set fire to, whether consistent with the Futwa or not; but it is to be explained to the prisoners, that the trial will be referred to the Nizamut Adaulut, and they are to remain in jail to wait the final sentence of that Court. Ben. 1795 R. 21. § 7.

13. And similarly on such Brahmens if they actually kill any of their women or children, with further sentence of banishment on their families and forfeiture of their real property; which part of the sentence, if confirmed by the Nizamut Adaulut, shall be submitted to the Governor General in Council, and not carried into execution without his approbation and order directing the disposal of the property. Ben. 1795 R. 21. § 9.

14. The sentence of forfeiture shall not take place if Government should limit the banishment to the offender or to a part only of his family. Ben. 1795 R. 21. § 10.

15. The Court of Circuit shall pass sentence of transportation on such Brahmens if they wound any of their women or children, subject to the same reference to the Nizamut Adaulut. Ben. 1795 R. 21. § 8.

16. Sentences of the Court of Circuit in Benares on Brahmens convicted of sitting Dhurra, shall not be carried into execution until reported to the Nizamut Adaulut and confirmed or mitigated by that Court. Ben. 1795 R. 21. § 11. C. 2.

17. On a trial for murder, if the Futwa declare the prisoner not guilty, the Judge of Circuit shall pass sentence of acquittal, unless he disapprove the verdict; in which case he shall transmit the trial to the Nizamut Adaulut: if the Futwa award Deyut, the Court of Circuit shall commute it into imprisonment for an adequate period; and such sentences shall be carried into execution, without reference to the Nizamut Adaulut if for temporary imprisonment, or shall be referred to the Nizamut Adaulut if for imprisonment for life: should the Futwa declare the prisoner liable to suffer death in the event of the heir requiring Kiffas, or not liable to capital punishment in consequence of the failure of Kiffas, the trial shall be referred to the Nizamut Adaulut. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 4. § 3. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 7. § 15. C. 2.

18. The Courts of Circuit shall issue their warrant to the Magistrate to carry into execution, without reference or delay, their sentence on persons convicted of sitting Dhurna. Beng. 1797 R. 5. § 4. Ced. Prov. 1804 R. 3. § 10. C. 1.

20. No pecuniary damages shall be awarded to, or recoverable by, individuals, on a criminal prosecution; and when a fine to the use of Government is imposed by a Criminal Court, the Court passing the sentence shall fix a definite period of imprisonment, at the expiration of which the prisoner shall be released though the fine be not paid. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 14. § 3. C. 1. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 7. § 39. C. 1.

21. Including the fines which the Courts of Circuit in Bengal &c. are empowered to impose on persons convicted of sitting Dhurna. Beng. 1797 R. 4. § 3. C. 2.

22. The imprisonment, awarded by a Court of Circuit in lieu of fines, shall be temporary in all cases; and their sentence shall be carried into execution without reference to the Nizamut Adaulut. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 14. § 3. C. 1. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 7. § 39. C. 1.

23. If the Futwa declare a prisoner liable to Deyut or pecuniary fine, for any acts other than homicide, the Court of Circuit shall commute it to imprisonment for a period deemed adequate to the offence; and their sentence shall be carried into execution without reference to the Nizamut Adaulut, if for temporary imprisonment, and shall be referred to that Court, if for imprisonment for life. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 14. § 4. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 7. § 39. C. 2.

24. Sentences of the Courts of Circuit on trials for perjury shall be executed or referred to the Nizamut Adaulut, according as they may be referrible or not under Sections 47 and 53, Regulation 9 of 1793. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 17. § 2.

A. D. 1801 25. The trial shall be referred to the Nizamut Adaulut in all cases where the prisoner is convicted of having accidentally killed one individual in the deliberate intention of killing another. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 2.

26. Or of having committed a homicide with a murderous intention, or in the deliberate intention of committing any crime, which, if carried into effect, would have subjected him to a sentence of death. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 3. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 3.

27. The commutation of Deyut into imprisonment is not applicable to the above mentioned homicides: and in homicides committed by real misadventure in the prosecution of a lawful act, and without any malignant intention, the Courts of Circuit are not to sentence the prisoner to any punishment, although the Futwa should award Deyut. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 6. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 6.

28. Sentences of Courts of Circuit on persons convicted of wounding one individual in the malicious and unlawful intention of wounding another, shall be executed or referred to the Nizamut Adaulut according as they may be referrible or not under the Regulations. *Beng. A. D. 1802 29. The trials of persons convicted, as principals or accomplices, of throwing a child into the sea or a river, in consequence of which the child shall perish, are to be referred to the Nizamut Adaulut. Beng. Ben. 1802 R. 6. § 2.

A. D. 1803 30. The Courts of Circuit are to transmit to the Nizamut Adaulut all trials for gang robbery, in which the sentence is for death or imprisonment during life, or in which they disapprove of the Futwa and are not authorized to pass and execute the sentence notwithstanding the Futwa. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 6. C. 1.

31. And when they deem a prisoner a proper object of mercy. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 4. C. 6.

32. The Court of Circuit shall execute commuted sentences of mutilation, or refer the trial to the Nizamut Adaulut, according as the degree of punishment or any Regulation may or may not require a reference. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 3. C. 3.

33. And sentences of discretionary punishment in consequence of any legal deficiency in the evidence. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 2. C. 3.

34. Or of any special exemption of the law repugnant to equal justice. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 2. C. 4.

35. And sentences of specific punishment denounced by any Regulation. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 2. C. 2.

36. If a Court of Circuit deem the punishment of thirty-nine stripes and seven years imprisonment insufficient in cases not specially provided for by the Muhamedan law or the Regulations, the trial shall be referred to the Nizamut Adaulut. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 2. C. 7. A. D. 1803

37. When the Judge of Circuit disapproves of the Futwa, or any of the prisoners are sentenced to death, he shall transmit the trial to the Nizamut Adaulut; and, though he approve of the Futwa, he shall not issue his warrant for execution of the sentence in referrible cases, until confirmed by the Nizamut Adaulut; nor shall he issue his warrant for execution of the sentence on an accomplice, when the trial of the principal is under reference, except for acquittal. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 6. C. 2.

38. Sentences of transportation or banishment are to be reported to the Nizamut Adaulut by the Magistrates of Zillas after each jail delivery; and by the Magistrates of Cities on the 1st January and 1st July of each year, or at any other period ordered by the Nizamut Adaulut. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 8. C. 4.

39. The Court of Circuit may execute or mitigate sentences on crimes committed in Cuttack previous to this Regulation, if not exceeding seven years imprisonment; and shall refer to the Nizamut Adaulut all severer sentences. Beng. 1804 R. 4. § 7. A. D. 1804

40. And similarly on crimes committed in the Conquered Provinces or Bundelkhand previous to the Regulation. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1804 R. 9. § 11.

2. IN SPECIAL CASES.

1. If the Court of Circuit should consider a Magistrate to have released or punished any person, on insufficient grounds, the Court shall report the circumstances with their opinion to the Nizamut Adaulut. Beng. 1793 R. 9. § 17. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 4. C. 1. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 6. § 17. A. D. 1798

2. The Magistrate of Bhaugulpoor may confirm, without reference to the Nizamut Adaulut, and carry into immediate execution, sentences of the assembly of hill chiefs, if for imprisonment not exceeding fourteen years; or he may mitigate such sentences, reporting the circumstances and his reasons to the Nizamut Adaulut. Beng. 1796 R. 1. § 11. A. D. 1798

2. Appeals shall lie to the Sadler Dewannee Adaulut from all civil suits tried in the first instance in the European Courts at Chandernagore and Chinfura, if presented in three months from the decision, or afterwards on showing satisfactory reason for the delay. Ibid § 2. C. 1.

3. Appeals shall also lie to the Sadler Dewannee Adaulut in three months, (or afterwards, on showing satisfactory reason for the delay,) from the decisions of the Superintendent or Commissioner in Appeal from decisions of the Cutcheries or native Courts of Chandernagore and Chinfura, provided the amount adjudged shall exceed 5000 Rupees. Ibid § 2. C. 2.

4. But the Sadler Dewannee Adaulut may admit a special appeal, although the amount be less than 5000 Rupees, if the decision shall appear evidently erroneous, or the nature of the cause shall appear of sufficient importance. Ibid § 2. C. 3.

5. The Court may try all appeals already preferred to the Governor General in Council from the decisions of the European Appeal Courts of Chandernagore and Chinfura, if referred to the Sadler Dewannee Adaulut by his order; but no decision, passed more than three months before the date of this Regulation, and not appealed to the Governor General in Council, shall be appealed to the Sadler Dewannee Adaulut unless specially admitted on satisfactory reason shown for the neglect; and the Court is to exercise this discretionary power with caution. Ibid § 3.

6. The petition of appeal is to be presented to the Superintendent of Chandernagore or Commissioner of Chinfura, and shall contain such information as may show it to be appealable, and a full statement of the objections to the decision, and shall be accompanied with good security for any costs or fine to be adjudged by the Sadler Dewannee Adaulut, unless the appellant make oath and adduce two witnesses to his inability, and furnish two sureties for his appearance. Ibid § 4. C. 1.

7. Within fifteen days from the receipt of the petition and security, or as soon after as practicable, it shall be certified with a copy of the appealed decree to the Sadler Dewannee Adaulut; who, if they admit the appeal, shall by precept require within a limited time the Judge to call on the respondent for his answer, and to certify it with a complete record of the cause to the Court. Ibid § 4. C. 2.

8. If the Judge should be unable to obey the precept within the time limited, he shall certify the same to the Sadler Dewannee Adaulut with notice of a period for a further return. Ibid § 4. C. 3.

9. The parties in such appeals shall not be required to attend in person nor by Vakeel at the Sadler Dewannee Adaulut; and where parties do not of their own accord appear, pear, nor appoint an established pleader of the Court, if reference to the parties or further pleadings shall be necessary, the reference shall be made through the Judge of the Court by which the decree was passed, or in such other manner as the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut may adopt. Ibid § 5. C. 1.

10. The Sudder Dewannee Adaulut may receive from parties or their authorized pleaders, or on reference by order of the Governor General in Council, petitions relative to judicial matters pending before, or decided by, the Judges of Chandernagore and Chinsura, and may issue thereon such orders as may appear proper and be consistent with the Regulation. Ibid § 5. C. 2.

11. If a cause should appear not to have been sufficiently investigated, the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut may refer it back to the Court which originally tried it, or which heard it in appeal; or may direct the Judge to take and transmit further evidence. Ibid § 6.

12. All process of the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut, relative to such appeals or petition, shall be addressed to the Judge; who is required to conform to all process issued under the seal of the Court and signature of the Register, and to perform the exigency within the period limited, or certify judicially in reason for the omission.

13. The laws and usages, which govern the decisions of the Courts at Chandernagore and Chinsura, shall govern the decision of the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut in such appeals. The particular law or usage, which influenced a decision, if not stated in the decree, shall be certified with the record; and the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut may take evidence of any local usage which has reference to the case. Ibid § 8.

14. The general Regulations for the administration of civil justice shall not be held applicable to such appeals, unless fully consistent with this Regulation, and in all respects applicable; but shall be held applicable to the Civil Courts of Chandernagore and Chinsura, as far as respects the authority of the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut over the Courts in cases not affecting the rights of the parties. Ibid § 9.

15. The Sudder Dewannee Adaulut may frame rules of practice for carrying into effect the provisions of the Regulation, and may prescribe an observance thereof to the Courts at Chandernagore and Chinsura. Ibid § 10.

16. No institution fee shall be levied on such appeals, nor need stamp paper be used for the pleadings or decisions: but vexatious or litigious appeals may be punished by a fine proportionable to the case and the condition of the party; and any contempt

A. D. 1805 of Court or other personal misconduct, or contempt of the Courts at Chandernagore and Chinsura in the pleadings or petitions to the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut: if the fine be not recovered from the party or his property or security, it shall be commutable by order of the Court for close imprisonment not exceeding six months. Ibid § 11.

17. Appealed decrees shall not be executed during the appeal, if the appellant give good security for the performance of the final decision in appeal; unless, on report of the Judge of Chandernagore or Chinsura, or from other information, the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut shall deem it necessary to order execution: if the decree shall not have been executed, the Court, on confirming the decision, shall allow interest at one per cent per mensem from the date of the original judgment together with the costs incurred. Ibid § 12. C. 1.

18. If the appellant shall fail to give security for staying execution, or if the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut order execution, good security shall be taken from the respondent for the performance of the final decision in appeal; and without such security, the decree shall not be executed. Ibid § 12. C. 2.

19. If neither party be able to give the required security, the property in dispute if capable of attachment, or any property liable to attachment and sale for the recovery of the money decreed, shall be attached by order of the Court which passed the decision until security be given or a final decision passed; and any perishable property so attached may, with the sanction of the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut, be converted into money by public sale. Ibid § 12. C. 3.

20. The decisions of the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut on such appeals shall be final unless they amount to £. 5000 or 50,000 current Rupees exclusive of costs, when an appeal will lie to the King in Council under the provisions of Regulation 16 of 1797. Ibid § 13.

21. The Superintendent at Chandernagore and Commissioner at Chinsura, on receipt of this Regulation, shall cause it to be translated into the Dutch and French languages, and published for general information in the Courts of Justice at those settlements, and in such places and manner as may be customary. Ibid. § 14.

III. CRIMINAL COURTS OF FOREIGN SETTLEMENTS.

A. D. 1805 1. The jurisdiction of the Calcutta Court of Circuit and Nizamut Adaulut is to extend over the settlements of Chandernagore and Chinsura. Beng. 1805 R. 16. § 2.

2. Which Courts shall be guided in their proceedings and decisions by the Regulations enacted for Bengal, Behar and Orissa. Ibid § 3. C. 1.

CRIMINAL COURTS.

3. But no Regulation prescribing an enhanced punishment beyond the Muhamadan law, shall be applied to offences committed previous to the promulgation of this Regulation. Ibid § 3. C. 2.

4. In all such cases, the Courts are to be guided by the Muhamadan law, and any modification of it in favour of the prisoner except in cases of murder, where the Futwa and sentence shall be given without reference to the heir on a supposition that he demands Kiffas Ibid § 3 C. 3.

5. And in the case of an European, or descendant of an European, being a settled inhabitant, if the punishment prescribed by the Muhamadan law be more than the punishment prescribed by the law in force when the settlement came into the possession of the British Government, the punishment shall be regulated by the law then in force. Ibid § 3 C. 4.

6. The Magistrate and deputy Magistrate of Chandernagore and Chinsura are empowered to decide on charges for abusive language, calumny, inconsiderable assaults and affrays, petty theft and larceny unattended with aggravating circumstances, and to punish on conviction by corporal punishment not exceeding 20 ratans or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or fine not exceeding 200 Rupees, commutable in every instance to imprisonment for a definite period Ibid § 4.

7. Persons charged with murder, robbery, arson, counterfeiting the coin, or any offence the prescribed punishment for which may exceed the above penalties, shall be committed for trial before the Court of Circuit if there appear sufficient grounds. Ibid § 5.

8. Sections 5 and 7, Regulation 9 of 1793, and Regulation 9 of 1796, are extended to Chandernagore and Chinsura but the Nizamut Adaulut may authorize modifications when necessary from local circumstances, and may furnish the Magistrate with any instructions relative to Criminal Justice or Police not repugnant to the general Regulations in force. Ibid § 6.

9. The Calcutta Court of Circuit is to hold half yearly jail deliveries for Chandernagore and Chinsura immediately after the jail delivery for Zilla Hooglee, at such places as the Nizamut Adaulut may direct. Ibid § 7.

10. The Magistrate, on receiving notice of the time when the Court of Circuit expects to be at the place appointed for holding the jail delivery, shall require by public notice all persons on bail, and all prosecutors and witnesses, to attend at the time appointed, under pain of forfeiting their recognizances, and shall ascertain from the persons committed for trial what other witnesses they are desirous to have examined, and shall cause all such witnesses to attend at the time fixed for the trial. Ibid § 8.

A. D. 1805 11. The Magistrate shall deliver to the Court of Circuit on its arrival, a calendar in Persian and English of persons committed or held to bail, in the form prescribed by Section 13, Regulation 9 of 1793, with all the original proceedings and documents specified in Section 14. Ibid § 9.

12. And two calendars of all persons apprehended and discharged or punished by the Magistrate, with all the original proceedings in each case, and, if the Court of Circuit should deem any person to have been released or punished on insufficient grounds, they shall submit the case with their opinion to the Nizamut Adaulut who may pass thereon any order deemed proper the Court of Circuit is expected to examine with attention the proceedings in any case respecting which a petition may be preferred, and either report the case to the Nizamut Adaulut, or inform the party by a written order on the petition. Ibid § 10.

13 Sections 15 to 17, Regulation 9 of 1793, are extended to Chandernagore and Chinsura. Ibid § 10.

14 And Sections 20, 21, 23 to 30, Regulation 9 of 1793, subject to necessary modifications by the Nizamut Adaulut but the monthly and half yearly reports are to be furnished in such form as the Nizamut Adaulut may prescribe Ibid § 11

15. These rules are applicable to all persons, not European British subjects, charged with crimes committed within the settlements of Chinderra and Cossia, but Europeans, British subjects, residing in these settlements in which case the Magistrate with any criminal offences, shall be proceeded with as is prescribed in Regulation 2 of 1796 Ibid § 12.

16 If a person, not an European British subject, residing within the settlements of Chandernagore and Chinsura, shall be charged with an offence committed without these settlements, the Magistrate shall apprehend him, and deliver him to the Magistrate in whose jurisdiction the offence may have been committed Ibid § 13.

17. During the absence of the Circuit law officer, the law officer of the Zilla or City shall perform his functions. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 4 § 8 Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 7. § 24.

18. The law officer of a Circuit Court is to be required, on any conviction of perjury, to declare whether the prisoner be liable to Tuf-heer according to the opinion of Huneketa, as well as to corporal punishment and imprisonment according to the opinion of Yusef and Muhammed. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 17. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 7 § 40.

A. D. 1799 19. In convictions of murder, if the Futwa declare the prisoner not liable to suffer death by Kifas, solely on the ground of his being the ancestor or heir of the slain, or the ancestor of one of the heirs of the slain, or in consequence of the slain having been a slave, or on any similar personal distinction, the Nizamut Adaulut shall notwithstanding sentence him to suffer death. Beng. Ben. 1799 R. 8. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 15.

20. And similarly, if the Futwa declare the prisoner not liable on the ground of one or more of his accomplices being exempted from Kifas. Beng. Ben. 1799 R. 8. § 4. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 17.

21. And also, whatever be the Futwa, in cases when the prisoner was desired by the Government to put him or her to death. Beng. Ben. 1799 R. 8. § 3. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 16.

22. And in cases of homicide by drowning or poison, if they deem the intention of drowning and poisoning to be evident. Beng. Ben. 1799 R. 8. § 5. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 1. A. D. 1799

23. The Nizamut Adaulut may sentence to death accomplices in wilful murder, whether the Futwa declare the same or not. Beng. Ben. 1799 R. 8. § 4. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 17.

24. If a person, maliciously intending to murder one individual, should accidentally kill another, the law officers of the Circuit Courts on the trial, and of the Nizamut Adaulut on the reference of the trial, shall be required to state in their Futwa what would have been the punishment if the intended murder had been committed. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 2. A. D. 1801

25. And in all cases of accidental homicide committed in the prosecution of an unlawful act, which, if committed, would have incurred a sentence of death. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 3. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 3.

26. If a person, intending to wound one individual, shall accidentally wound another, the law officers of the Circuit Court shall be required to declare what would have been the punishment if the act had been committed on the individual intended to be wounded. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 4. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 4.

27. And, on the reference of such trials to the Nizamut Adaulut, the law officers of this Court shall be required to give their Futwa on similar grounds. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 5. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 5.

28. In homicides clearly from misadventure, the Courts of Circuit shall not sentence the prisoner to any punishment, though the Futwa declare him liable to pay Deyut. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 6. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 6.

29. If a person throw a child into the sea or a river, in the intention of taking away life, and the child lose its life in consequence, the Nizamut Adaulut shall sentence him, and all his abettors, to death, whatever be the Futwa. Beng. Ben. 1802 R. 6. § 2. A. D. 1802

30. When the law officer of a Court of Circuit considers a prisoner liable to discretionary punishment, he shall state in his Futwa the grounds on which the prisoner is adjudged to be liable thereto. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 2. C. 1. A. D. 1803

31. And shall be required to state in a second Futwa what would have been the specific penalty on conviction by legal evidence, if the first Futwa adjudged discretionary punishment on the grounds of some legal deficiency in the evidence, in a case for which

A. D. 1803 no penalty has been provided by a Regulation and in which the legal penalty on complete conviction of the crime would have been, under the Muhamedan law, Hud or Kilas: and the Judge shall pass sentence accordingly. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 2. C. 3.

32. Also what would have been the penalty, if such exception had not existed, in a case where the Futwa declares discretionary punishment on the ground of some special exception repugnant to equal justice. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 2. C. 4.

33. If the Judge disapprove of the Futwa and be not authorized to pass sentence notwithstanding the Futwa, the trial shall be referred to the Nizamut Adaulut. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 6. C. 1.

34. And in such case, the Court of Circuit shall not pass sentence. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 6. C. 2.

35. Nor shall the Court pass any sentence, except for acquittal, on any accomplice, when the trial of the principal is referred to the Nizamut Adaulut, though he approve the Futwa. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 6. C. 2.

36. If no specific penalty have been provided by a Regulation, or by the Muhamedan law, the Judge shall consult with the law officer. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 2. C. 7.

37. On the reference of such trials to the Nizamut Adaulut, if the law officers of the Nizamut Adaulut adjudge a prisoner to discretionary punishment, they shall state the grounds of their opinion. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 7. C. 1.

38. And the Nizamut Adaulut will pass sentence, after taking a second Futwa where requisite. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 7. C. 2.

A. D. 1793
Re-enacted
1797 R. 4 § 8

1. When a prisoner is convicted of murder, the Court of Circuit shall cause reference to be made to the heir of the slain, and if he require Kiffas, (retaliation) the Court shall pass sentence of death and transmit the proceedings to the Nizamut Adaulut, and wait the final sentence of that Court. Beng. 1793 R. 9. § 52. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 22.

ditto

2. If the heir of the slain entitled to claim Kiffas should refuse to prosecute, or should not appear, nor declare his intention to pardon the murderer, or should not be of legal age to claim Kiffas, the Court shall proceed with the trial as if the slain had no heir; and the law officers shall be required to declare what would have been the Futwa in case the heir had been of sufficient age and had appeared and prosecuted; and the Court shall send the trial to the Nizamut Adaulut. Beng. 1793 R. 9. § 55. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 22.

ditto

3. On the reference of such trials, if the prisoner be declared by the law officer liable to suffer death in the event of the heir of the slain requiring it, the Nizamut Adaulut, if they approve of the proceedings held on the trial, shall sentence the prisoner to death notwithstanding the heir should pardon him or require Deyut. Beng. 1793 R. 9. § 76. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 22.

A. D. 1796

4. On the trial of a hill prisoner before the assembly of Bhaugulpoor hill Chiefs, if a prisoner be pronounced guilty of murder and would be liable to suffer death supposing the heir to demand retaliation, the prisoner shall be sentenced to, and shall suffer, death. Beng. 1796 R. 1. § 13. C. 4.

A. D. 1797

5. If on a trial for murder, the law officer of a Court of Circuit declare the prisoner convicted of wilful murder, the Court, without making any reference to the heir of the slain, shall require the law officer to declare what would be the legal punishment supposing the Nizamut Adaulat, whether the Futwa declare the prisoner liable to suffer death or not liable to it from the heirs not being legally entitled to demand Kifas, or from the failure of Kifas from the parties standing in the relation of parent and child, grandfather and grand-son, or otherwise. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 4 § 3. Cid. Prev. 1803 R. 3 § 12.

6. The law officers of the Nizamut Adaulat, in writing their Futwa on such referred trials, shall always assume, that all the heirs of the slain, entitled to prosecute for Kifas, attended, and prosecuted at an age competent to demand Kifas, and demanded Kifas; and the Nizamut Adaulat shall pass such sentence as may appear consonant to justice and conformable to the Muhamedan law, with the exceptions and modifications authorized by the Regulations. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 4 § 4. Cid. Prev. 1803 R. 3 § 12.

7. If the Futwa declare a prisoner convicted of wilful murder not liable to suffer death from the failure of Kifas on the ground of the prisoner being the ancestor of the slain, or of the heir of the slain, or of one of the heirs of the slain, or the slain having been the slave of the prisoner, or of any other person, or of the public, or on any other ground of personal distinction, the Nizamut Adaulat shall sentence the prisoner to death unless deemed an object of mercy. Beng. Ben. 1799 R. 3 § 2. Cid. Prev. 1803 R. 3 § 15.

8. And also if the Futwa withhold Kifas in consequence of the prisoner having been desired by the slain to put him to death. Beng. Ben. 1799 R. 3 § 3. Cid. Prev. 1803 R. 3 § 16.

9. Or in consequence of one or more of his accomplices being exempted from Kifas. Beng. Ben. 1799 R. 3 § 4. Cid. Prev. 1803 R. 3 § 17.

10. The distinction of the Muhamedan law of withholding Kifas when a person deliberately intending to murder one individual accidentally kills another, and in all cases in which any mistake or accident may occur either in the design of the person committing the homicide or in the act whereby the homicide is committed, is superseded. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 3 § 1.

11. In the first case, the law officer shall be required to declare what would have been the punishment if the prisoner had committed the murder intended by him. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 3 § 2. Cid. Prev. 1803 R. 3 § 10. C. 2.

12. And the same rule is applicable to all other cases in which the prisoner shall be clearly convicted of having committed the homicide with a murderous intention, or

A. D. 1801 with a deliberate intention of committing any crime, which if perpetrated would have rendered him liable to suffer death. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 3. Ced. Prev. 1803 R. 2. § 12. C. 3.

A. D. 1805 13. The Futwa, on a trial for a murder committed within the settlements of Chandernagore and Chinfura, shall be given without any reference to the heir of the slain, on a supposition that the legal demand for Kiffas has been made. Beng. 1805 R. 16. § 3. C. 3.

14. The Board shall not grant any remission of Jumma without the sanction of Government. 1793 R. 2. § 40.

15. Whenever an abatement of Jumma appears to the Board necessary, the amount of the abatement and the Jumma proposed shall be specified in the letter to Government. 1793 R. 2. § 60.

16. The assessment, when agreed to by the proprietors of estates farmed or held Khas, on their restoration to the management of their lands, shall be unalterable for ever. Beng. 1793 R. 1. § 5. Ben. 1795 R. 27. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 33. Conq. Prov. 1805 R. 9. § 23.

17. If estates belonging to Government be transferred to individuals, the assessment, at which they may be transferred, shall remain fixed for ever. Beng. 1793 R. 1. § 6. Ben. 1795 R. 27. § 3.

18. No claim for suspensions or remissions on account of calamity of season will be attended to; but, for all arrears of revenue, the defaulter's land or a portion will be invariably sold. Beng. 1793 R. 1. § 7.

19. Except the lands of disqualified landholders, for arrears which have accrued during their disqualification. Beng. 1793 R. 1. § 8. C. 5. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 52. § 6.

A. D. 1793

20. No objection to the discharge of the fixed assessment shall be made in consequence of any rules which Government may make in behalf of the tenants. Beng. 1793 R. 1. § 8. C. 1. Ben. 1795 R. 27. § 5. C. 1. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 35. C. 1. Conq. Prov. 1805 R. 9. § 25. C. 1.

21. The whole estate will continue liable for the public assessment in case of a division, until each sharer be put into separate possession of his share. Beng. 1793 R. 25. § 28. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 26. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 26. § 58.

22. No remission shall be claimed by landholders in consequence of not participating in any Sayer collections, should Government again establish the Sayer. Beng. 1793 R. 1. § 8. C. 2. Ben. 1795 R. 27. § 5. C. 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 35. C. 2. Conq. Prov. 1805 R. 9. § 25. C. 2.

23. The assessment, imposed by Government on rent-free lands held by invalid titles, will belong exclusively to Government. Beng. 1793 R. 1. § 8. C. 3. Ben. 1795 R. 27. § 5. C. 3. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 35. C. 3. Conq. Prov. 1803 R. 9. § 25. C. 3.

24. Except land, not exceeding 100 Begas in any one grant, made previous to the 1st December 1790, which shall belong to the landholder. Beng. 1793 R. 19. § 6. Ben. (land not exceeding fifty Begas made previous to 1796) 1795 R. 41. § 6.

25. And similar grants not registered within one year. Beng. 1793 R. 19. § 26. Ben. 1795 R. 41. § 26.

26. And grants, whether more or less than 100 Begas, made since the 1st December 1790, except by the Governor General in Council. Beng. 1793 R. 19. § 10. Ben. (grants made since 1798) 1795 R. 41. § 10.

27. Allowances, or produce of land, formerly appropriated to Police establishments, may be resumed by Government, but will be collected separately and appropriated to the same purposes, and not added to the Jumma of the landholders. Beng. 1793 R. 1. § 8. C. 4. Ben. 1795 R. 27. § 5. C. 4. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 35. C. 4. Conq. Prov. 1805 R. 9. § 25. C. 4.

28. Private transfers of portions, and private divisions, of estates, are to be notified to the Collector for his apportioning of the assessment; if not notified, the whole estate will be held responsible: creation of a dependant Talook at a fixed Jumma shall not affect the rights of Government or the responsibility of the whole estate; nor will the Jumma, stipulated between the landholder and new Talookdar, be entered on the records of Government. Beng. 1793 R. 1. § 10. Ben. 1795 R. 27. § 7. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 37. Conq. Prov. 1805 R. 9. § 27.

GENERAL RULES.

29. If an entire estate be sold in lots at public sale for arrears, or in execution of a decree, the assessment of each lot shall bear the same proportion to its actual produce as the assessment of the whole bears to the actual produce of the whole, which shall be ascertained according to the Regulations; and the assessment fixed for each lot or portion will remain fixed for ever. Beng. 1793 R. 1. § 10. C. 1. Ben. 1795 R. 27. § 7. C. 1. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 37. C. 1. Cong. Prov. 1805 R. 9. § 27. C. 1.

30. The same if a portion of an estate be sold in one or more lots. Beng. 1793 R. 1. § 10. C. 2. Ben. 1795 R. 27. § 7. C. 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 37. C. 2. Cong. Prov. 1805 R. 9. § 27. C. 2.

31. Or if an estate be privately transferred by sale or gift in portions, or a portion of an estate be transferred. Beng. 1793 R. 1. § 10. C. 3. Ben. 1795 R. 27. § 7. C. 3. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 23. § 37. C. 3. Cong. Prov. 1805 R. 9. § 27. C. 3.

32. Or when a joint estate may be divided. Beng. 1793 R. 1. § 10. C. 4. Ben. 1795 R. 27. § 7. C. 4. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 37. C. 4. Cong. Prov. 1805 R. 9. § 27. C. 4.

33. If an estate held Khas be publicly sold, it will be sold at such assessment as Government may deem equitable; if an estate let in farm be sold, the purchaser will receive Malikana during the lease, and must afterwards pay such assessment as Government may deem equitable. Beng. 1793 R. 1. § 11. C. 1. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 38. C. 1. Cong. Prov. 1805 R. 9. § 28. C. 1.

34. If an estate held Khas or let in farm be privately transferred, the purchaser will receive Malikana until restored. Beng. 1793 R. 1. § 11. C. 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 38. C. 2. Cong. Prov. 1805 R. 9. § 28. C. 2.

35. And if an estate held Khas or let in farm be divided, each sharer will similarly receive Malikana. Beng. 1793 R. 1. § 11. C. 3. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 38. C. 3. Cong. Prov. 1805 R. 9. § 28. C. 3.

36. No transfer, mortgage or private assignment shall affect the right of Government to hold all land liable in the first instance for the public revenue. Beng. 1799 R. 7. § 29. C. 5. ext. Ben. 1800 R. 5. § 26. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 36. R. 26. § 11. Cong. Prov. 1805 R. 9. § 26. A. D. 1799

II. BENGAL, BEHAR AND ORISSA.

1. WITH WHOM THE SETTLEMENT SHALL BE MADE,

1. The settlement is to be made with the actual proprietors of the soil. 1793 R. 8. § 4. A. D. 1799

Am. 17. 1793
Modified
1796 R. 7 § 8.

2. Except proprietors disqualified by sex, minority, natural infirmity, contumacy, and profligacy. 1793 R. 8. § 20.

3. Their lands are to be managed by persons appointed by Government under the rules of Regulation 10. 1793 R. 8. § 21.

4. And except landholders unable to pay their arrears, whose lands shall, in the discretion of the Collector, be farmed or held Khas for three years. 1793 R. 8. § 22.

5. And except the proprietors in the salt districts which are to be held Khas. 1793 R. 8. § 100.

6. Proprietors of the soil are Zemindars, Talookdars or Choudries. 1793 R. 8. § 4.

7. For ascertaining what Talookdars are actual proprietors of the soil, the Collectors are merely to decide by inspection of the title deeds, or by other proofs and documents, if there be no deed, whether the tenure be such as is described in Sections 5 and 9. 1793 R. 8. § 11.

8. Parties, dissatisfied with the Collector's decision, may sue in the Civil Court to prove their rights. 1793 R. 8. § 12.

9. The revenue of the independent Talooks is not to be paid through the Zemindars. 1793 R. 8. § 13.

10. But at the pleasure of Government or through Tehsildars. 1793 R. 8. § 14.

11. The Tehsildars are to be officers of Government; Zemindars shall not be appointed Tehsildars for the separated Talooks. 1793 R. 8. § 15.

12. Mokurree leases to persons not proprietors of the soil, if confirmed by Government or made previous to the Company's Dewannee, are to continue during the lessee's life. 1793 R. 8. § 16.

13. Subject to the pleasure of the Court of Directors. 1793 R. 8. § 17.

14. If since the Dewannee or not confirmed by Government, they are to be dispossessed; but such as have had possession above twelve years shall receive during life the difference between their former rent and the assessment which the proprietors may now engage for, subject to the pleasure of the Court of Directors. 1793 R. 8. § 18.

15. And such, as hold grants from the proprietor of the soil, shall be considered as Pottah Talookdars. 1793 R. 8. § 19.

16. The acceptance or refusal of the Jumma offered as a joint share, is to be determined by the majority of votes of proprietors present; but any sharers dissatisfied, may obtain a division of the estate at their own expense. 1793 R. 8. § 16.
17. If the sharers have separate possession of their shares, they are to make a separate settlement. 1793 R. 8. § 27.
18. In cases of mortgage, the settlement is to be made with the party in possession, but transferable to the other party on future adjudication. 1793 R. 8. § 28.
19. And in cases where the property in the land is disputed. 1793 R. 8. § 30.
20. But, if neither claimant have possession, the parties shall elect a manager; or, in default thereof, the land shall be held Khas, and the surplus produce kept in deposit till the decision of the suit. 1793 R. 8. § 31.
21. Where boundaries are disputed, the settlement is to be made for the lands in possession of each party till the Civil Court decide the dispute. 1793 R. 8. § 32.
22. Where the proprietor cannot be ascertained or is absent, an advertisement shall be made for him; and, if he do not attend in six months, the estate is to be farmed for ten years. 1793 R. 8. § 29.
23. If a landholder decline to engage on the Jumma proposed by the Collector, his objections shall be reported to the Board; and, when the Jumma is finally fixed by the Board, if he give his refusal in writing, the estate shall be farmed or held Khas in the discretion of the Board. 1793 R. 8. § 43.
24. Such landholders shall receive ten per cent Malikana on the Sudder Jumma, if farmed, and on the neat collections if held Khas. 1793 R. 8. § 44.
25. Government will consider cases where more may be deemed requisite. 1793 R. 8. § 77.
26. The Malikana of landholders declining the assessment is to be paid from the Collector's treasury, if the land be held Khas. 1793 R. 8. § 47.
27. And the Collector is to enforce payment of it from the farmer, if the estate be farmed. 1793 R. 8. § 46.
28. The lands of actual proprietors are to be deemed sufficient security for the public revenue; but farmers are invariably to give security. 1793 R. 2. § 37.
29. Landholders or farmers, on making their settlement, are to receive the Buhadustee Perwanna from the Board of Revenue without waiting the sanction of Government. 1793 R. 2. § 40.

LAND REVENUE

30. Where an estate devolves to two or more heirs, if they choose to hold it as a joint property, a manager shall be appointed under Section 23 Am. Regulation 4; and if they choose to divide it, the assessment on each share shall be allotted conformably with Sections 10 and 11, Regulation 1. 1793 R. 11. § 4.

31. The settlement of resumed rent-free lands not Badshahee is to be made with the grantees, who are to be considered as the proprietors until ousted by a decree of a Civil Court. 1793 R. 19. § 4.

32. The settlement of resumed Badshahee grants is to be made in perpetuity with the proprietor of the soil; but, if he refuse to pay the Jumma demanded, shall be held Khas or let in farm. 1793 R. 37. § 6.

33. All disputes respecting the proprietary right are to be decided in the Civil Courts. 1793 R. 19. § 4. R. 37. § 4.

34. The revenue on resumed rent-free land not Badshahee, exceeding 100 Begas in any one grant, made previous to the 1st December 1790, belongs to Government; and such land when assessed shall be considered as an independent Talook. 1793 R. 19 § 7.

35. And, if the proprietor agree to the Jumma required of him, it will remain fixed for ever; but, if he refuse to pay it, the land shall be held Khas or let in farm. 1793 R. 19. § 8. C. 2 & 3.

36. The revenue on such resumed land not exceeding 100 Begas in one grant, belongs to the person responsible for the rents of the estate, but without subjecting him to any increase of assessment. 1793 R. 19. § 6.

37. And such land, when assessed, shall be considered as a dependant Talook. 1793 R. 19. § 9.

38. The revenue of resumed Badshahee grants belongs to Government. 1793 R. 37. § 6.

39. The Collector, if the land exceed 100 Begas (and the person entitled to the rents, if it do not exceed 100 Begas,) may assess all such grants not registered within one year from a publication to be made, nor subsequently admitted on the registers by orders of Government. 1793 R. 19. § 26.

40. The Collector may assess all Badshahee grants not so registered. 1793 R. 37. § 11.

41. And the person entitled to the rents may dispossess the grantee of every rent-free grant made since 1st December 1790 by any other authority than the Governor subject to an abatement of one-fifth. 1793 R. 2. § 12.

42. No Collector shall give land in farm to an European nor accept the security of an European for a farmer. 1793 R. 2. § 17.

43. Nor the Board of Revenue, without the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council. 1793 R. 2. § 18.

44. And Europeans, who make loans on the mortgage of land, shall not be permitted to hold possession of the land nor to have any concern in the management or collection of the rents. 1793 R. 38. § 4.

45. Estates, held Khas, shall be restored to the proprietors on their agreeing to the settlement required; which shall be unalterable for ever: but, if farmed, shall not be restored till the expiration of the lease, unless on surrender of the lease by the farmer with the sanction of Government. 1793 R. 1. § 5.

46. Talookdars, not separated at the decennial settlement, shall not be separated, although entitled to it, unless they apply in one year from this date (1801): not applying, they will after such lapse be considered as dependant Talookdars. Talooks, created since the decennial settlement, are not entitled to separation under Regulation 8 of 1793; but will be considered as part of the original estate, and liable with the rest to sale for revenue due from any part of it, until divided from it under Regulation 25 of 1793. 1801 R. 1. § 14.

47. Sections 23 to 25, Regulation 8 of 1793, are rescinded. 1805 R. 17. § 2.

2. TERMS OF THE SUDDER SETTLEMENT.

1. The code of 23d November 1791 for the decennial settlement of Bengal, Behar and Orissa, is enacted into a Regulation with modifications. 1793 R. 8. § 1.

2. Mokurree grants to persons not proprietors of the soil, if granted or confirmed by Government, or previous to the Company's Dewannee, are to continue in force during the lives of the lessees, subject to an abatement of the fixed Jumma for resumed or abolished Sayer. 1793 R. 8. § 16.

3. And Mokurree grants to the proprietor of the soil, made or confirmed by Government, are to continue in force subject to the same abatement. 1793 R. 8. § 17.

4. Allowances to Cazees and Canongoes, and all public pensions formerly paid by the landholders, are to be added to the Jumma and paid in future by the Collectors. 1793 R. 8. § 34.

LAND REVENUE.

A. B. 1793

5. Unless the payment of them should be entrusted to the landholders in Bengal by order of Government. 1793 R. 8. § 74.

6. Or in Midnapoor. 1793 R. 8. § 97.

7. The assessment is to be fixed exclusive of Sayer duties. 1793 R. 8. § 35.

8. Except such as are confirmed to the proprietors. 1793 R. 27. § 2. C. 8.

9. And exclusive of all rent-free lands whether held with or without due authority. 1793 R. 8. § 36.

10. But Malikana, Nankar, Khomar, Neezjote, and other private lands of the Zemindars, are not included in this exception. 1793 R. 8. § 37.

11. Nor the Chakeran lands, which are to be annexed to the Malguzaree lands and held responsible for the revenue. 1793 R. 8. § 41.

12. Sayer compensations are to be made by an abatement of Jumma. 1793 R. 27. § 6. C. 2.

13. In the estates for which the proprietors have entered into engagements. 1793 R. 27. § 7. C. 2.

14. And in the estates of disqualified proprietors. 1793 R. 27. § 8.

15. Malikana lands in Behar are to be so annexed to the estate, unless they be held under grants of Government and have been sold or mortgaged, and are in possession of the mortgagee; and unless the Collectors should see any material injury to an individual therefrom, in which case they shall report it to the Board. 1793 R. 8. § 38.

16. Nankar, Khomar, and Neezjote lands in Bengal and Orissa are also to be annexed; but proprietors, declining the assessment, may retain possession, if the Board be satisfied of their right to retain it; and the produce of such lands shall be deducted from their allowance of Malikana. 1793 R. 8. § 39.

17. This consolidation of the private lands is to take place also in the dependant Talooks. 1793 R. 8. § 40.

18. Chakeran lands are to be annexed to Malguzaree lands and held equally responsible for the public revenue with the Malguzaree lands. 1793 R. 8. § 41.

19. All engagements for the Jumma are to be in Sicca Rupees, with a clause to pay Siceas, or the species collected at the Bazar rate of Batra until a sufficient number of Siceas can be circulated; and such rates are to be inserted by the Collector in his treasury account. 1793 R. 8. § 42.

20. Farmers are to engage to pay the Malikan in addition to the Jumma monthly, according to the Sudder Kistbundee, except where otherwise stipulated. 1793 R. 8. § 45.

21. The rules for the settlement may be modified as necessary, according to the circumstances of each district, by the Collectors, reporting all modifications deemed necessary, but without exercising any judicial authority. 1793 R. 8. § 67. C. 5.

22. And where, from want of information, a settlement cannot be made for ten years, it is to be made for one year. 1793 R. 8. § 67. C. 6.

23. All the restrictions on landholders in their Kabooliats, not repealed by a Regulation, are in force. 1793 R. 8. § 67. C. 1.

24. But the rules, declaring them responsible for the peace of their districts, are superseded. 1793 R. 8. § 67. C. 4.

25. And all bonâ fide transfers of their estates, subsequent to 8th June 1787, are valid without the sanction of the Revenue Board; and they have been at liberty from 29th October 1790 to borrow money without such sanction. 1793 R. 8. § 67. C. 2.

26. And all transfers of their estate by sale, gift or otherwise, without the sanction of Government, are valid if conformable to the law of the party's religion and not repugnant to any Regulation. 1793 R. 1. § 9.

27. The preceding year's Jumma, compared with the information obtained and the recommendation of the Board, is to be the standard for the settlement in Bengal. 1793 R. 8. § 68.

28. But if more information be deemed necessary by the Board, and can be procured without a Hustabood or measurement, the settlement of particular districts may be postponed. 1793 R. 8. § 69.

29. No abatement is to be allowed from the preceding year's Jumma without the sanction of Government. 1793 R. 8. § 70.

30. Occasional diminutions for casualties of season are to be provided for by a Ruffud not to extend beyond the third year, except in petty Mehals where it may be thought expedient by the Board to extend it further. 1793 R. 8. § 71.

31. The settlement is to be clear of all charges of Moshahira, Amla, Poolbundee, Cuckery, and other similar charges, which are to be defrayed by the landholders. 1793 R. 8. § 72.

A. D. 1793.

32. The Collectors are to ascertain whether these charges were heretofore defrayed by Government or by the landholders. 1793 R. 8. § 78.

33. And the landholders shall receive a deduction in their Jumma, if such charges were formerly defrayed by Government; but not if formerly defrayed by themselves. 1793 R. 8. § 79.

34. All separate allowances for the families of landholders are to be abolished, where possible. 1793 R. 8. § 73.

35. The provision for such persons of the families, as are entitled thereto, is to be made out of the Malikana. 1793 R. 8. § 44.

36. In separated Talooks, whose Jumma is clearly below the Pergumna rates, and in all lands where the actual produce has been ascertained, the assessment is to be made so as to leave 10 per cent to the proprietor including his private lands. 1793 R. 8. § 75.

37. But Government will take into consideration any case where a larger provision shall be deemed necessary. 1793 R. 8. § 77.

38. When the Jumma is fixed on ascertained gross assets, all Mofussil charges are to be considered in calculating the proper assessment. 1793 R. 8. § 80.

39. All lands, which have been held at a fixed Jumma during twelve years, are to continue at the same, subject to a deduction for resumed and abolished Sayer. 1793 R. 8. § 76.

40. The average product of three or four common years, deducting Malikana and Khurcha, is to be the basis of the settlement in Behar: in cases of great uncertainty, the lands may be measured on a report to the Board showing the clearest necessity. 1793 R. 8. § 83.

41. No abatement is to be allowed from the preceding year's Jumma without the sanction of Government. 1793 R. 8. § 85.

42. The Jumma is to be fixed by the Collector on his own judgment, or on proposals from the proprietors, with the reserve of the Board's approbation. 1793 R. 8. § 81.

43. All lands, which have been held at a fixed Jumma during twelve years, are to continue at the same, subject to a deduction for resumed Sayer. 1793 R. 8. § 84.

44. The Sudder Kistbndee is to be so regulated as to afford convenience to the landholders, with due regard to the security of Government. 1793 R. 8. § 86.

43. In Midnapoor alterations may be made in the Jumma of 1796, if found to be necessary. 1793 R. 8. § 88.

46. For which purpose the Collector shall compare the Wafiat and Akhrajat, and ascertain those instances in which the landholders may have been obliged to sell their lands and effects to make good their stipulations. 1793 R. 8. § 89.

47. Landholders, delaying to produce the accounts required, may be fined by the Collector, reporting it to the Board. 1793 R. 8. § 90.

48. In cases of great uncertainty, lands may be measured, and other local investigations may be held. 1793 R. 8. § 91.

49. Remissions on the Jumma of 1796, where necessary, may be granted, subject to the approbation of Government. 1793 R. 8. § 92.

50. The allowances for casual deficiency is to be reduced to three per cent on the Jumma. 1793 R. 8. § 93.

51. And for religious establishments, is to be reduced as much as possible. 1793 R. 8. § 94.

52. The charge of purchasing provisions for the Midnapoor battalion is to be discontinued. 1793 R. 8. § 95.

53. Occasional diminution is to be provided for, by a Ruffud of three years, unless a longer Ruffud be necessary in petty Mehals. 1793 R. 8. § 98.

54. The settlement is to be made free from all charges of Moshahira, Amla, Pool-bundee, &c. which are to be defrayed by the proprietor. 1793 R. 8. § 96.

55. Every circumstance, influencing the Regulation of the Jumma in Bengal, is to be minutely recorded. 1793 R. 8. § 81.

56. And in Behar. 1793 R. 8. § 87.

57. And in Midnapoor. 1793 R. 8. § 99.

3. RULES INCIDENT TO THE SETTLEMENT.

1. The assent of the decennial settlement was declared unalterable for ever, if such continuance were approved by the Court of Directors. 1793 R. 1. § 2. R. 8. § 3.

2. Who have empowered the Governor General in Council to declare such continuance. 1793 R. 1. § 3.

A.D. 1793.

3. All landholders and their heirs will therefore be allowed to hold their estates for ever at the assessment which they have engaged to pay. 1793 R. 1. § 4.

4. The assessment on estates of disqualified proprietors is to be fixed in like manner as that of other lands. 1793 R. 10. § 12. C. 1.

5. Sayer compensations to them are to be made by an abatement of the whole amount of the former Sayer collections from the full Jumma; or by a deduction of 10 per cent, if the Jumma shall have been formed on the assets of the land only. 1793 R. 27. § 8.

6. The assessment on Badshahee grants made since 12th August 1765, when resumed, expired or forfeited, is to be according to Regulation 8; if the proprietor decline the assessment, the land shall be farmed or held Khas; or, if he agree to the assessment, it shall remain fixed for ever. 1793 R. 37. § 6.

7. And on such grants not registered within one year from a publication to be made, and not subsequently admitted on the register by order of Government. 1793 R. 37. § 21.

8. The revenue of resumed land is to be payable from the date of the first decree adjudging it liable to revenue. 1793 R. 19. § 19. R. 37. § 14.

9. When rent-free grants not Badshahee, made previous to 1178-9, are resumed for Government, the assessment is to be half of the produce according to the Pergunna rate, and to include a Ruffud for the waste lands to be approved by the Board and by Government: the produce is to be ascertained by a measurement at the joint expense of Government and of the proprietor, if he agree to the Jumma required; or by such mode as the Collector and Board may deem advisable: if the proprietor decline the assessment, the land shall be farmed or held Khas; if he agree to the assessment, it shall remain fixed for ever. 1793 R. 19. § 8. C. 2.

10. When rent-free grants, made since 1178-9, are resumed, the assessment is to be adjusted according to Regulation 8, conformably to the above rule. 1793 R. 19. § 8. C. 3.

11. The Collector is similarly to assess all such grants not registered within a year from the publication, and not subsequently admitted on the register by orders of Government. 1793 R. 19. § 26.

12. The revenue on each share of a joint estate, when it is divided, shall be assessed according to Regulation 1. 1793 R. 19. § 3.

13. If any error be discovered in the allotment of the shares within three years, Government may order a new allotment. 1793 R. 25. § 25.

14. The Board may make such alteration in the allotment of the public revenue on each share of a divided estate, as may appear proper; reporting their determination to Government. 1793 R. 25. § 19.

15. The whole of a joint estate is to be held answerable for the public revenue until the division be finally adjusted, and each sharer be put into distinct possession of his share. 1793 R. 25. § 28.

16. The revenue on a portion of an estate sold in execution, is to be assessed according to Section 10, Regulation 1. 1793 R. 45. § 4.

17. Where lands are sold in lots, due regard must be paid to the rules of Section 10, Regulation 1, and Section 8, Regulation 25 of 1793, in assessing them. 1796 R. 5. § 3.

18. Government does not guarantee the truth of the accounts on which the assessment is allotted on lands sold: if a purchaser at public sale shall within one year prove to the satisfaction of Government, that the accounts used in allotting the Jumma were false, a new allotment will be ordered. Collectors, on receiving such claims, shall make full inquiry, and report to the Board; who, if satisfied of the justice of the claim, shall submit it to Government; and, if not, shall reject it: and the claimant may appeal to Government. No such claims will be received for pail sales, if not preferred in one year from this date; except in cases of manifest fraud and error. No addition shall be made to a purchaser's Jumma, unless he consent to it for the purpose of rectifying mistakes rather than relinquish his purchase. 1799 R. 7. § 19. C. 2.

19. By the annual produce, on which, by Section 10, Regulation 1 of 1793, the assessment upon any portion of land sold is to be allotted, is meant the neat rents after deducting the charges of collections: when Putwarree accounts are deemed inaccurate, or proved to be fabricated, or may not be forthcoming, and the Collector may have obtained satisfactory accounts by other means, he shall estimate the assessment thereon; but this allotment of Jumma is in no instance to be final without the sanction of the Board. 1801 R. 1. § 8.

20. New allotments of assessment in divided Mehals, under Section 25, Regulation 25 of 1793, are not to be final till sanctioned by the Board; and, in case of a reduction therein, not till sanctioned by Government. 1801 R. 1. § 12.

21. The Board may make necessary alterations in the assessment, allotted by the Collectors on the shares of a divided estate. 1801 R. 1. § 13. C. 4.

A. D. 1801 22. And need not report them to Government, except in case of a reduction in the fixed assessment. 1801 R. 1. § 13. C. 5.

4. RULES FOR THE MORUSSIL SETTLEMENT.

A. D. 1793 1. A settlement for ten years is to be made by the landholders with the dependant Talookdars; and a record of it, specifying their names, Talooks and Jumma, is to be delivered to the Collector in three months. 1793 R. 8. § 48.

2. The Jumma of a Talook shall not be fixed for a period exceeding ten years; nor shall any settlement, for a period not exceeding ten years, be renewed except in the last year: all engagements contrary hereto are void. 1793 R. 44. § 2.

3. Except Talookdars within the description of Section 51, Regulation 8. 1793 R. 44. § 7.

4. Landholders are not prohibited from selling, giving or disposing of any part of their lands as a dependant Talook 1793 R. 44. § 6.

5. But the Jumma, stipulated between the parties, will not be entered on the public record; and such lands will be liable with the rest of the estate for the revenue of the whole. 1793 R. 1. § 10.

6. Malguzaree and private lands are to be consolidated in the dependant Talooks, but not for the purpose of increasing the rents of the Talooks. 1793 R. 8. § 40.

7. Mokurureedars, who have paid a fixed rent during twelve years, are not liable to enhancement of their rent, either by the proprietor or by the officers of Government; nor those who have not paid a fixed rent so long, to enhancement by the proprietor, if the deed shall preclude an increase. 1793 R. 8. § 49.

8. But these latter are liable to enhancement, if the estate be farmed or held Khas. 1793 R. 8. § 50.

9. Dependant Talooks are not to be subjected to an enhanced rent, unless proved to be liable by the custom of the district, the conditions of the tenure, or by having received abatements. 1793 R. 8. § 51. C. 1.

10. Zemindars, exacting more than their right from a Talook, shall forfeit twice the amount and costs of suit. 1793 R. 8. § 51. C. 2.

11. The proprietor may let the other lands of his estate in what manner he may think proper, under the restrictions prescribed: but every engagement with under farmers shall be specific; and any thing received beyond it shall be repaid with double penalty. 1793 R. 8. § 52.

12. But no lease shall be made for more than ten years; nor a lease for a term not exceeding ten years be renewed except in the last year, all leases contrary to or in evasion of this rule are void. 1793 R. 44. § 2.

13. Landholders, however, are not prohibited from granting leases for any term or in perpetuity to natives for the erection of houses and other buildings, or for gardens &c. 1793 R. 44. § 8.

14. They shall revise with their tenants the Abwab, Mut'hot'h, &c. and consolidate the whole by the end of 1198. 1793 R. 8. § 54.

15. Imposing any new Abwab, they shall pay a penalty of three times the amount. 1793 R. 8. § 55.

16. After the year 1198, all claims of rent on engagements which do not consolidate the Assul and Abwab, are to be nonsuited. 1793 R. 8. § 61.

17. Pottahs, if the parties mutually agree, are to be for a specific sum for a certain quantity of land; but, if the parties prefer rates variable according to the article cultivated, the Pottah shall specify the quantity of land, species of produce, rate and amount of rent, and term of lease, with a stipulation for the execution of new engagements if the species of produce be changed; and in such event new engagements shall be executed accordingly. 1793 R. 8. § 56.

18. The rent, by whatever rule or custom regulated, shall be specifically stated in the Pottah, which in every possible case shall contain the exact sum to be paid by the Rayats. 1793 R. 8. § 57. C. 1.

19. And if adjustable on a measurement after cultivation, or on survey of the crop, or payable in kind, the rate and terms of payment, and proportion of crop, with every other condition, shall be clearly specified. 1793 R. 8. § 57. C. 2.

20. And landholders shall prepare a form of Pottah for the Collector's approbation and register it in the Zilla Court. 1793 R. 8. § 58.

Modified
1794 R. 4. § 6

21. And shall give or tender to the tenants such Pottahs under penalty of a fine in the Court's discretion. 1793 R. 8. § 59.

ditto § 6

22. Farmers are not to grant Pottahs beyond their own lease without leave of the proprietor; nor Agents, without the authority of their principal. 1793 R. 8. § 59.

23. Leases, anterior to the decennial settlement, and not contrary to Regulations, are to remain in force except on proof of collusion, or unless granted without authority. 1793 R. 8. § 60. C. 1.

A. D. 1793

24. The Pottahs of the Khodkasht Rayats are not to be cancelled except on proof of collusion, or in case of a general measurement of the Perguma. 1793 R. 8. § 60. C. 2.

25. No persons contracting with, or employed by, landholders in the collection of their rents, shall take charge without a written Amilnama. 1793 R. 8. § 53.

26. Landholders, farmers and their Agents shall give the tenants a receipt for every payment of revenue, and a receipt in full on the complete discharge of it: a refusal to give receipts shall be punished in the Civil Court by damages equal to double the amount. 1793 R. 8. § 63. C. 1.

27. They shall not collect the rents of absconded Rayats from those who remain. 1793 R. 8. § 63. C. 2.

28. They shall adjust the instalments of the tenants according to the times of sowing the crops, and may be sued for damages if they do not conform to this Regulation. 1793 R. 8. § 64.

29. They are not to contract any engagement contrary to the letter and meaning of the Regulation. 1793 R. 8. § 65.

30. All restrictions on landholders by their Kabooliats, not repealed by any Regulation, are in force. 1793 R. 8. § 67. C. 1.

31. But the restrictions against attaching the crops of the tenants who have given security, is annulled. 1793 R. 8. § 67. C. 3.

32. The Rayats in the salt Mahals are to receive their Pottahs from the Collector. 1793 R. 8. § 101.

33. The revenue of resumed rent-free lands other than Badshahee, not exceeding 100 Begas in one grant, made previous to the 1st December 1790, is to belong to the person who is responsible for the revenues of the dependant Talook or estate in which the lands are situated, without subjecting him to any increased assessment; and if the estate be Khas, shall be collected by, and paid to, the person entitled to receive the rent, until a settlement be made; and such land, when assessed, will be considered as a dependant Talook. 1793 R. 19. § 6.

34. And the revenue of any such grant not registered within one year from a publication to be made, and not subsequently admitted on the register by order of the Governor General in Council. 1793 R. 19. § 26.

35. All of any rent-free grant, not Badshahce, made since the 1st December 1790, except by the Governor General in Council, whether exceeding or under 100 Begas. 1793 R. 19. § 10.

36. The revenue of resumed land is to be payable from the date of the first decree adjudging it liable to revenue. 1793 R. 19. § 19.

37. The assessment on resumed rent-free grants made previous to the 1st December 1790, lapsing to the landholder, is to be adjusted according to the same rules as in similar grants lapsing to Government, and shall be fixed by the Collector, (reporting it for the confirmation of the Board of Revenue, who may increase or reduce the amount;) on the accounts of the produce which are to be obtained by the landholder without any expense to the grantee: and, if the proprietor shall agree to pay the revenue required, it shall remain fixed for ever, to him and to his heirs, as a dependant Talook. 1793 R. 19. § 9.

38. Persons, holding land-rent-free under grants made since 1st December 1790 by any authority except the Governor General in Council, are to be dispossessed, and the rents collected at the Pergunna rates. 1793 R. 19. § 10.

39. Landholders shall have no right to object to the discharge of their fixed revenue, in consequence of any Regulation which Government may enact for the protection of the dependant Talookdars, Rayats &c. 1793 R. 1. § 8. C. 1.

40. After the 10th April 1794, all engagements of landholders and farmers with the tenants &c. not in nineteen Sun Sicca Rupees, shall not be recoverable in the Civil Courts. 1793 R. 35. § 21.

41. Landholders, exacting more than the established rates of rent from opium Rayats, may be sued for damages in Civil Courts. 1793 R. 33. § 2. C. 24.

42. Leases, not repugnant to the Regulations, are not affected by the division of an estate. 1793 R. 44. § 3.

43. Nor by a private transfer or descent, or a public sale in execution of the estate. 1793 R. 44. § 4.

44. But in case of the estate being sold for recovery of arrears, all leases and Potahs to farmers and Rayats, and all engagements with the dependant Talookdars, shall be void; and the purchaser may collect according to the rates of the Pergunna. 1793 R. 44. § 5.

45. Except leases to invalid Sepoys for their Jagcers. 1793 R. 43. § 6.

C. 5.

64. Leases, unless collusive, if made previous to the attachment of the estate, shall not be cancelled till the end of the year, if the sale be made after the second month. 1801 R. 1. § 9.

65. The leases of invalidated Sepoys for their Jageers are not cancelled under Section 5, Regulation 44 of 1793, by a sale of the estate in which they are situated. 1804 R. 1. § 10.

III. B E N A R E S.

1. TERMS OF THE SUDDER SETTLEMENT.

1. The measures adopted, from the year 1195, regarding the settlement of the Benares revenue, are enacted into a Regulation. 1795 R. 2. § 1.

A. D. 1794

2. The settlement made in 1195 with the Amils was for the Tushkees Jumma, including Nuzeranah and Government's Nisf bhuray, and Ruffoom Khuzanah, and exclusive of Mujrace, Maafec, Mamoolce and Kharij Jumma, with a penalty of three times the amount on all exactions beyond the Tushkees. 1795 R. 2. § 2.

3. Towards preventing all exactions, new Pottahs were issued to the Rayats specifying the length of the rod by which Betaye lands were to be measured, and the rate of division; but the practice of Agore Betaye or rent in kind was abolished; and it was ordered, that the money valuation of Government's share in the Betaye lands should be fixed and published by Government for each harvest in Magh and Jyeth. 1795 R. 2. § 3. C. 1.

4. And specifying similarly the length of the rod in the Nukdee lands, with a consolidated ready money rent of Aful and such Abwab as existed in 1187; all since imposed being prohibited. 1795 R. 2. § 3. C. 2.

5. And the rent of waste land intended to be brought into cultivation was directed to be fixed at such rate as the Rayats might agree to pay without Abwab. 1795 R. 2. § 3. C. 2.

6. The Canongoes were ordered to co-operate in fixing the Jumma of the Nukdee lands and the proportion of assessment on Betaye lands, and in adjusting the rates and modes of both Nukdee and Betaye revenue to the standard rod of three Ilahce Dirrah. 1795 R. 2. § 4.

7. According to a prescribed rule of adjustment. 1795 R. 2. § 5.

8. Some Brahmens and Ateeths having threatened self murder if Agore Betaye was not adhered to with regard to them, the Amils were authorized to continue the practice till they should voluntarily consent to a money rent. 1795 R. 2. § 21.

9. The settlement of 1196 was made on estimates furnished by the Canongoes of the actual produce from the Aful and Abwab, as they stood in 1195, compared with the Dowls, or estimates of the Affets for 1196, deducting the Amil's Dehyek, or ten per cent commission, charges of management, Maafec, Mujrace, Canongoe's Nankar, and Amil's Nisf bhuray. 1795 R. 2. § 6.

10. And Government's Nisf bhuray, Nuzeranah and Ruffoom Khuzanah, were abolished. 1795 R. 2. § 7.

11. The Amil's Nisf bhuray and Ruffoom Canongo were subsequently abolished. 1795 R. 2. § 8. C. 1.

12. Of this settlement, one third was made on lease for one year, and the remainder on lease for five years; and a new form of Kabooliat was taken from the Amils, binding them to abide by all the stipulations therein contained, and not to demand any Abwab established since 1187, nor the Nisf Bhuray and Ruffoom Canongoes 1795 R. 2. § 8. C. 1.

13. The Amils were directed, in forming their Mofussil settlement for the second year, to let the villages for the remaining four years, to the hereditary landholders where existing and willing to engage and to give security; and, where not, to farmers. 1795 R. 2. § 9. C. 2.

14. Except the Aymadars dispossessed during the Vizeer's administration. 1795 R. 2. § 9. C. 3.

15. And it was ordered, that a farmer, relinquishing his farm before the close of the year, should pay the whole of his Mofussil collections to his successor, or to the Amil, if his farm did not exceed 5000 Rupees, and should be allowed a commission of five per cent if it did. 1795 R. 2. § 8. C. 2.

16. Government, on the 17th June 1789, directed the introduction into Benares of a permanent system of settlement, as proposed in Behar, to be formed for a period of ten years. 1795 R. 2. § 10.

17. And a decennial settlement was ordered to be formed, agreeably to the resolution of 20th May and 18th September 1789, regarding the settlement of Behar. 1795 R. 2. § 11.

18. Except with the village Zemindars dispossessed previous to 1182, when the sovereignty of Benares was transferred to the Company. 1795 R. 2. § 12.

19. The quartennial Mofussil settlements were revised so as to regulate the allotment according to the ability of each village and Puttee or share of a village, with a gradual and moderate Ruffud where the proportion of waste lands was large, and inclusive of Abcarec, Ghurdewaree or Khergui, which were to be collected separately by the Amils. 1795 R. 2. § 13.

20. The collection called Khergui was subsequently abolished. 1795 R. 2. § 20.

21. The revised Pottahs of four years, and the Pottahs issued for ten years, bound the Pottahdars, whether village Zemindars or farmers, to the following stipulations. 1795 R. 2. § 14. C. 1.

22. 1st; All property, real and personal, of Pottahdars, may be sold for failure in their payments of revenue. 1795 R. 2. § 14. C. 2.

LAND REVENUE.

23. 2d; If they make rent-free grants, the land will be forfeited and double assessment will be collected from the grantee during the time he may have had possession; but they must not attach, without the sanction of Government, any land held rent-free till 1195. 1795 R. 2. § 14. C. 3.

24. 3d; They are to collect from the Rayats according to the rules of 25th June and 1st July 1788. 1795 R. 2. § 14. C. 4.

25. 4th; If they do not give receipts to the Rayats, they are to forfeit double the amount of the payment. 1795 R. 2. § 14. C. 5.

26. 5th; They are to support the Canongoes in the full exercise of their functions. 1795 R. 2. § 14. C. 6.

27. 6th; Levying Sayerjchat &c. they are to forfeit three times the amount. 1795 R. 2. § 14. C. 7.

28. 7th; They are to make good the value of property robbed and stolen, if they do not recover it and secure the offenders. 1795 R. 2. § 14. C. 8.

29. 8th; They are to apprehend, and send for trial, all murderers &c. 1795 R. 2. § 14. C. 9.

30. 9th; They are obey all orders of Government under pain of forfeiting their property. 1795 R. 2. § 14. C. 10.

31. The following restrictions were laid on Amils as Tehsildars: that they should be responsible for the regular realizing of the revenue and abstain from levying any excess; that they should enforce the stipulations with the landholders and farmers, and cause them to issue Pottahs to the tenants, that they might lower when oppressive, but on no pretext enhance, the rates of 1187; that they should grant receipts for all payments of revenue on pain of a discretionary fine; that they should regulate by the custom of the Pergunna, and account to Government, for the Tulubana on defaulters; that they should refrain from collecting Sayer under penalty of three times the amount; and that they should be responsible for maintaining the peace, and for thefts and robberies, with a right to indemnification from the Zemindar or farmer. 1795 R. 2. § 15. C. 1.

32. They were further empowered to decide disputes between Zemindars &c. and tenants, concerning revenue, and to refer causes of a civil nature to arbitration by consent. 1795 R. 2. § 15. C. 2.

33. And were forbidden purchasing the lands of any person in farm, such purchases being declared null, and redeemable by the proprietor within five years on repayment of the purchase money with simple interest. 1795 R. 2. § 16. C. 3.

34. Where contests existed between the Puteedars or sharers in a village, or between different claimants to the same village, the settlement was made with the actual occupant, or with the person known to have had possession at any time since 1182, leaving the claimants to prove their right in the Adaulut. 1795 R. 2. § 16. C. 1.

35. And it was ordered, that, in case of any person getting a judgment for a village let in farm, he should repay to the displaced farmer Tuccavee actually advanced, with three per cent commission on the realized revenue. 1795 R. 2. § 16. C. 2.

36. Where a village belonged to many Puteedars, the Pottah was made in the name of one or more head men among the brethren, leaving the inferior Puteedars, if desirous of separation, to prosecute their claims in the Adaulut. 1795 R. 2. § 17. C. 1.

37. In Pergunna Kurindeh, the settlement was made with a manager nominated by a number of Zemindars engaging in a joint Kabooliut, and responsible for the manager. 1795 R. 2. § 17. C. 1.

38. In some Talookdaries, which have depending on them several village Zemin-daries, the settlement was made with the Talookdar, leaving him to assess the Zemindars according as local custom or the good will of the parties might direct. 1795 R. 2. § 17. C. 2.

39. In Pergunna Agoree Burhur, the settlement was made with the Talookdars and Zemindars and grantees and mortgagees, without any power in the Raja to alter or innovate. 1795 R. 2. § 17. C. 3.

40. In Pergunna Buleeah, the settlement was made with such descendants of the Raja as could make out pretensions to a permanent tenure; and, where no such pretensions were made out or preferred, with the Mokudums. 1795 R. 2. § 17. C. 4.

41. Talooka Mujhwa was let out in separate portions to the principal Talookdar and his relations, without power in the said Talookdar to alter or innovate. 1795 R. 2. § 17. C. 5.

42. In Pergunna Kufwar or Gungapoor, no Mofussil settlement was made for the Raja's part of it, nor for his family Jaggers of Budhose and Kera Mungrare and Talooka Kerowna,

A. D. 1795 Kerowna, which are left to the authority of the Raja himself in all matters relating to their revenue. 1795 R. 2. § 17. C. 6.

43. And in Government's part of this Pergunna, Talooka Kurnadaree, though the settlement was concluded by Government, Pottahs were not granted to the parties; but it was stipulated that the Raja, who is their Tehildar, should not dispossess any of them without the sanction of Government, and that their complaints might be heard in the mixed tribunals. 1795 R. 2. § 17. C. 6.

44. No settlement was made for Pergunna Lukhnafur, the inhabitants of which were left to assess among themselves the fixed revenue of the Pergunna. 1795 R. 2. § 17. C. 7.

45. The Peshkullee tenures in Pergunna Juanpoor were continued by the permanent settlement. 1795 R. 2. § 17. C. 8.

46. The salt districts of Juanpoor were let in farm, either inclusive with, or separately from, the land revenue. 1795 R. 2. § 18.

47. That part of the district of Singroolee, which extends as far as the Belea rivulet, remained tributary to Benares; and that part, which lies beyond the Belea, pays tribute to the Raja of Burdee. 1795 R. 2. § 17. C. 9.

48. At the expiration of the quinquennial settlement in 1200 a revision took place; adequate abatements were granted, where lands had been too highly assessed or had suffered from drought and calamity of season; heirs of deceased renters were admitted; renters, unduly dispossessed by the Amils, were re-instated; the ancient Zemindars were restored to lands relinquished by the farmers or held Amancee in consequence of their not appearing originally; and new permanent leases were granted. 1795 R. 2. § 22.

49. The newly restored Zemindars were continued under the Amils; but, in case of exactions by the Amil on a Pottahdar, the latter was to become Huzoorce. 1795 R. 2. § 19.

50. Also in the Raja's Tehildaree Mehals, and in all other Mehals under the Raja, in which the settlement had been made by Government. 1795 R. 2. § 24.

51. Pottahdars were to hold their lands on the fixed assessment during life. 1795 R. 2. § 20.

52. Amils were to be dismissed if they dispossessed a Pottahdar, and were to report the death of Pottahdars. 1795 R. 2. § 23.

53. Pottahdars, on entering into prescribed securities, Mal-, Fael-, and Hazir-gaminee, might become Huzooree; and would be allowed half of the Tehsildar's commission, except in the Raja's family lands and Tehsildaree Mehals. 1795 R. 2. § 24.

54. Land was declared liable to be sold by Government for recovery of revenue balances, though no such sales had hitherto taken place. 1795 R. 2. § 26.

55. The collection of the Amanee lands was entrusted to the Amils; and it was ordered, that, from 1202, the Tushkhees of those lands should be ascertained by Ameens; and that all Pottahs, granted by the Amils in the Amanee lands at less than the Pergunna rates, should be null and void. 1795 R. 2. § 27.

56. No rent-free grants for gardens or places of worship were to be made without the sanction of Government. 1795 R. 2. § 28.

57. The person, in whose name the Pottah was made out, was to be considered immediately responsible to Government; but the Poteedars might prosecute their claims in the Adaulut. 1795 R. 2. § 25.

2. RULES INCIDENT TO THE SETTLEMENT.

1. The Jumma, payable under the decennial settlement, shall remain fixed for ever with regard to those Pottahdars who have performed the conditions of their Pottahs, and as long as they continue to observe them. 1795 R. 1. § 2 & 3. C. 1. A. D. 1795

2. The Pottahdars shall conform to all the Regulations of Government regarding the rights of their Poteedars and of the Rayats, or the administration of justice. 1795 R. 1. § 3. C. 3.

3. The succession to Zemindaries is to be according to the laws and customs of the country and Regulations of Government. 1795 R. 1. § 3. C. 4.

4. Zemindars, dispossessed previous to 1st July 1775, may be restored to their estates on the death of the Pottahdars, if they agree to the Jumma assessed. 1795 R. 2. § 3. C. 5.

5. And Zemindars, excluded at the formation of the settlement, may regain possession on proving in a Court of Justice intermediate possession since 1st July 1775, and indemnifying the Pottahdar for his losses, which shall be ascertained and provided for in the decree. 1795 R. 1. § 3. C. 6.

A. D. 1795

6. The future settlement of Amanee and farmed lands is to be made by the Collector agreeably to the Regulations and the instructions which he may receive ; that of Amanee lands is to be formed on the Jacdad with a deduction of ten per cent, and a Ruffud of four or five years for the waste lands ; and that of farmed lands is to be made, on the unalterable Jumma already fixed, with the party entitled to succeed to the Pottah. If the Zemindar, entitled to succeed, should decline, he shall not hereafter be admitted without agreeing to a settlement to be formed as for Amanee lands. 1795 R. 5. § 7. C. 4.

7. Lands of dispossessed proprietors are not to be sold for arrears accrued during dispossession, but will become liable after restoration. 1795 R. 27. § 5. C. 5.

8. And the lands of Zemindars excluded under Section 12, Regulation 2 of 1795, are not to be sold on any account until they shall have been restored. 1795 R. 27. § 8.

9. The lands of proprietors are liable for their revenue engagements, and they shall besides give security. 1795 R. 5. § 31.

10. When an estate devolves to two or more heirs, if they choose to divide it, the assessment on each share shall be allotted by Section 7, Regulation 27 of 1795. 1795 R. 44. § 4.

11. The revenue of resumed rent-free lands not Badshahee, exceeding fifty Begas in any one grant, made previous to 1796, belongs to Government, but is to be paid through the proprietor of the estate from which the alienation took place. 1795 R. 41. § 7.

12. The revenue on such resumed land, not exceeding fifty Begas in any one grant, belongs to the person responsible for the rents of the estate, but without subjecting him to any increase of assessment ; and, if the estate be held Khas, shall be collected by and paid to the person entitled to receive the rents, until a settlement be made. 1795 R. 41. § 6.

13. The Collector, if the land exceed fifty Begas, and the person entitled to the rents, if it do not exceed fifty Begas, may assess all such grants not registered within one year from a publication to be made, and not subsequently admitted on the register by order of Government. 1795 R. 41. § 26.

14. The Collector may assess all Badshahee grants not so registered. 1795 R. 42. § 21.

15. And the person entitled to the rents may dispossess the grantee of any rent-free grant made since the beginning of 1796 by any other authority than the Governor General in Council, and may assess the land at the Pergunna rate without being subject to an increase of assessment. 1795 R. 41. § 10.

16. The settlement of resumed ~~rent~~-free lands in Benares is to be made with the grantee, until ousted by the decision of a Civil Court. 1795 R. 41. § 4.

17. The settlement of a resumed Badshahee grant is to be made with the proprietor of the soil. 1795 R. 41. § 6.

18. All disputes respecting the proprietary right are to be settled in Courts. 1795 R. 41. § 4. R. 42. § 4.

19. The assessment on grants made previous to the 31st August 1781 is to be one half of the Pergunna rates ; and is to include a Ruffud for the waste lands approved by the Board and Government ; the produce is to be ascertained by a measurement at the joint expense of Government and of the proprietor, if he agree to the Jumma required, or by such mode as the Collector and Board may deem advisable. If the proprietor decline, the land shall be farmed or held Khas ; if he agree to the assessment, it shall remain fixed for ever. 1795 R. 41. § 8. C. 2.

20. The assessment on grants made since the 31st August 1781 is to be according to Regulation 5 of 1795, under similar stipulations. 1795 R. 41. § 8. C. 3.

21. And on Badshahee grants resumed, escheated, or expired. 1795 R. 42. § 6.

22. The revenue is payable from the date of the first decree adjudging resumption. 1795 R. 41. § 19. R. 42. § 14.

23. Portions of an estate sold for satisfying decrees are to be assessed according to Section 7, Regulation 27 of 1795. 1795 R. 20. § 4.

24. And shares of an estate divided. 1795 R. 26. § 3.

25. In the division of an estate the whole is to be held answerable for the revenue until the division be finally adjusted and each sharer put into distinct possession. 1795 R. 26. § 7. C. 2.

26. The following rules of Regulation 25 of 1793, for allotting the assessment on portions of a divided estate, are extended to Benares. 1795 R. 26. § 2.

27. The Board of Revenue may make such alteration in the allotment of the public revenue on each share of a divided estate, as may appear proper, reporting it to Government. 1793 R. 25. § 19. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 26. § 2.

28. If any error be discovered in the assessment of the shares within three years, Government may order a new settlement. 1793 R. 25. § 25. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 26. § 2.

A. D. 1800

29. The rules of Section 29, Regulation 7 of 1799, for allotting the assessment on portions of land sold, are extended to Benares. 1800 R. 5. § 26.

A. D. 1801

30. New allotments of assessment, in divided Mehals, under Section 25 Regulation 35 of 1793, are not to be final till sanctioned by the Board; and, in case of a reduction therein, not till sanctioned by Government. 1801 R. 1. § 12.

31. The Board may make necessary alterations in the assessment allotted by the Collector on the share of a divided estate. 1801 R. 1. § 13. C. 4.

32. And need not report them to Government except in case of a reduction in the fixed assessment. 1801 R. 1. § 13. C. 5.

33. The assessment on portions of land sold is to be allotted on the neat annual rents after deducting the charges of collection; the Collector's allotment of Jumma is in no instance to be final without the sanction of the Board. 1801 R. 1. § 8.

A. D. 1806

34. On the death, removal or resignation of a Tehsildar in Benares, the Collector shall report through the Board of Revenue, and the Magistrate through the Nizamut Adaulat, the establishment necessary for the collection of the revenue and the maintenance of the Police respectively; and the Governor General in Council will fix the allowances and establishment of the successor. 1806 R. 21. § 2.

35. Tehsildars, appointed under this Regulation, shall have the same power with the present Tehsildars both as officers of revenue and of Police. 1806 R. 21. § 3.

36. And shall be responsible for the revenue of the Mehals within their Tehsildars, but shall receive abatements for any loss proved to the satisfaction of the Governor General in Council to have arisen from the impracticability of realizing any balances of Zemindars &c. and for actual losses proved to his satisfaction in the Amance lands, and for any remissions granted by the Governor General in Council to any Zemindars &c. 1806 R. 21. § 4.

37. The personal salary and revenue establishment shall be paid to such Tehsildar by the Collector, and the Police establishments shall be paid by the Magistrate; and the expense shall be charged to the Revenue and Judicial Departments respectively. 1806 R. 21. § 5.

3. RULES FOR THE MOEUSSIL SETTLEMENT.

A. D. 1795

1. Pottahs to the Rayats in Benares, granted by the landholders, in the Moshukhuffe lands, and by the Amils in the Amance lands, are to contain the Aful and Abwab, as they they stood in 1187, consolidated where the rents are paid in money, and the modes and rates of division where paid in kind, to be adjusted on reference to the Putwarees and Canongoes. 1795 R. 51. § 2. C. 1.

2. Are to be for one general rate if the parties should agree thereto. 1795 R. 51. § 2. C. 2.

3. Are to specify the number and description of Begha, with the consolidated rate of assessment on each description of Begha. 1795 R. 51. § 2. C. 3.

4. Are to have a detailed specification of all particulars. 1795 R. 51. § 2. C. 6.

5. According to a prescribed form. 1795 R. 51. § 2. C. 7.

6. And are to be signed by the landholders in the Muskhuffee lands, and by the Amils in the Amance lands, and attested by the Canongoes. 1795 R. 51. § 2. and 5.

7. Subordinate Puteedars are entitled, on application, to similar Pottahs. 1795 R. 51. § 2. C. 4.

8. If the Ameens, deputed to carry into effect the delivery of Pottahs, shall have authorized any Pottahs contrary to the letter and spirit of the above form, such Pottahs are to be adjudged invalid in the Courts of Justice. 1795 R. 51. § 5.

9. If a publication be affixed by landholders and farmers at the principal Cuchery, notifying that Pottahs are ready for delivery, and stating when and where they may be obtained by application, such notification shall be deemed a legal tender of Pottahs. 1795 R. 51. § 7.

10. The Khodkasht tenants are entitled to have their Pottahs renewed at the established rents whenever expired or cancelled; but landholders &c. have the option of renewing or not the leases of Packasht tenants. 1795 R. 51. § 10.

11. The approbation of the Collector to Pottahs extends only to the form; when any deviation from the form prescribed by Clause 7, Section 2, may be deemed necessary by the Collector, the amended form shall be registered in the Dewannee Adaulut. 1795 R. 51. § 8.

12. All disputes regarding the rates of Pottahs are to be heard in the Dewannee Adauluts. 1795 R. 51. § 9.

13. No leases or Pottahs in Benares shall be granted for a period exceeding ten years, nor shall be renewed except in the last year; all engagements, contrary to this prohibition, or tending to evade it, are void. 1795 R. 50. § 2.

A. D. 1795

14. But landholders are not prohibited from granting to natives leases of ground for a longer period, or in perpetuity, for buildings or gardens. 1795 R. 50. § 7.

15. Nor from selling or giving part of their land as a dependant tenure whether Zemindary or Puteedary. 1795 R. 50. § 6.

16. Leases in Benares, not repugnant to the Regulations, are not affected by the division of an estate. 1795 R. 50. § 3.

17. Nor by a private transfer, or descent, or public sale in execution. 1795 R. 50. § 4.

18. But in case of the estate being sold for recovery of arrears, all leases and Pottahs to farmers and Rayats, and all engagements with dependant tenants, shall stand void, and the purchaser may collect according to the rates of the Pergunna. 1795 R. 50. § 5.

19. Except leases for buildings or for gardens. 1795 R. 50. § 7.

20. Landholders and farmers in Benares are allowed to the end of 1204 for issuing the Pottahs; after which all claims of rent on engagements contrary to the form prescribed, or to such other form as the Collector with the sanction of Government may prescribe, shall be rejected by the Courts. 1795 R. 51. § 6.

21. Except the local usages of Agore Betaye in Pergunna Chownsa. 1795 R. 51. § 3. C. 3.

22. And of annual valuation in Pergunna Kurindeh. 1795 R. 51. § 3. C. 9.

23. And except in Pergunna Muhamedabad, where the descendants of the old Zemindars are permitted to decline taking Pottahs. 1795 R. 51. § 3. C. 10.

24. The revenue on resumed rent-free land other than Badshahee, not exceeding fifty Beghas in any one grant, held on grants made previous to 1196, belongs to the person who is responsible for the rents of the estate, but without subjecting him to any increase of assessment; and, if the estate be held Khas, shall be collected by, and paid to, the person entitled to receive the rents, until a settlement be made. 1795 R. 41. § 6.

25. And on similar grants not registered within one year from a publication to be made, nor subsequently admitted by Government on the register. 1795 R. 41. § 26.

26. The person entitled to the rents may dispossess the grantee of any rent-free grant, whether more or less than fifty Beghas, made since the beginning of 1196 by any other authority than the Governor General in Council, and may assess the land at the Pergunna rates without being subject to an increase of assessment. 1795 R. 41. § 10.

27. The assessment on resumed rent-free grants prior to 1196 and lapsing to the landholder, is to be adjusted as on similar grants lapsing to Government; and shall be fixed by the Collector (reporting it for the confirmation or revision of the Board) on accounts of the produce which the landholder must obtain without any expense to the grantee; if the proprietor shall agree to pay the revenue required, it shall remain fixed for ever. 1795 R. 41. § 9.

28. Leases and engagements in estates under charge of Ameens for default of revenue shall not be infringed by the Ameens; and, where no engagements exist, the Ameen shall collect according to the Pergunna rates. 1795 R. 6. § 15.

29. Or for sale in execution. 1795 R. 20 § 7.

30. A sale for the recovery of arrears of revenue shall cancel wholly the leases of those under farmers, a part only of the land included in whose leases may be sold. 1796 R. 3. § 3.

31. All disputes between a purchaser of land at public sale and the under tenants are to be settled by due course of law, in like manner as they would have been between the under tenants and the former proprietor: but such purchaser may eject, without application to the Adaulut, the under tenants whose leases are cancelled, and who decline to renew them on such terms as he is authorized to require. 1799 R. 7. § 29. C. 5. ext. Ben. 1800 R. 5. § 26.

32. Ameens in charge of attached lands are to collect the rents according to the Pergunna rates, notwithstanding engagements evidently collusive and contracted in expectation of the attachment. 1800 R. 5. § 24.

33. If an arrear of rent be not liquidated within the current year, the defaulter, if an under farmer for the past year only, can have no claim to any further lease; and though the lease may not have expired, the lessor has the option to annul it in consequence of his failure in the payment of the stipulated rent; or, if the defaulter be a leaseholder or other tenant having a right of occupancy as long as the rent be paid, the landholder may oust the defaulter without application to the Adaulut. 1800 R. 5. § 14. C. 7.

34. The tenants may sue the landholders &c. in the Civil Court, and recover costs and damages, for any infringement of their rights, whether founded on Pottahs and other written engagements, or on prescription and established usage. 1800 R. 5. § 14. C. 7.

35. No claim of purchase or mortgage on crops shall bar the claim to rent for the ground on which the crops grew. 1805 R. 5. § 9.

A. D. 1801

36. If a public sale of land should take place after the 2d month of the year, leases granted for the current year by the proprietor antecedently to his estate being attached, unless collusive, shall not be cancelled under Section 5, Regulation 50 of 1795, and Section 3, Regulation 3 of 1796, until the end of the year. 1801 R. I. § 9.

IV. C E D E D P R O V I N C E S.

1. TERMS OF THE SUDDER SETTLEMENT.

1. A proclamation to the following effect, relative to the settlement, was published on the 14th July 1802. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 29

2. From the year 1210 the Sayer is to be separated from the Mal, and a settlement for the latter concluded where practicable with the actual proprietors (unless disqualified by bad character or other sufficient cause,) for three years, at a fixed equal annual Jumma; Huzoorce Malguzars being held responsible for the Police of their estates. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 29.

3. At the end of the three years, a settlement will be made with the same persons, if willing to engage, for three years more at a fixed equal annual Jumma, formed by adding two thirds of the difference between the annual Jumma of the first lease and the actual yearly produce at its expiration. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 29.

4. At the end of the six years, a settlement will be formed with the same persons, if willing to engage, for four years at a fixed equal annual Jumma, formed by adding three fourths of the net increase of revenue during any one year. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 29.

5. At the end of the ten years, a permanent settlement will be made with the same persons, if willing to engage, provided no others, who may have a better claim, shall come forward, for such lands as are in a sufficient state of cultivation, on such terms as Government shall deem equitable. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 29.

6. The Zemindars, who decline engaging, or whose offer may be rejected by Government, shall be allowed the same Nankar which they received from the Nawab Vizeer. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 29.

7. Of mortgaged Zemindarees, if in possession of the mortgagee, the settlement will be made with the person in possession, leaving the proprietors to obtain possession by a private settlement of accounts or by a judicial process. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 29.

8. The settlement of small Talooks nominally included in large Zemindari will be made separately with the proprietors, who shall be allowed to pay the revenue to the Tehsildars of Government. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 29.

9. Of lands without proprietors, or the proprietors of which decline engaging, a village settlement will be made for three years, giving the preference to the Mokudums, Purdhans or respectable Rayats. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 29.

10. If neither proprietors nor farmers be forthcoming, the lands will be held Khas. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 29.

11. Authorized Abwab are to be consolidated with the land rent, and expressed in the Pottahs and Kabooliats; and nothing, but what is there expressed, shall be collected from the Rayats or under renters. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 29.

12. All persons, engaging for the settlement, must bind themselves in writing to grant such Pottahs to the Rayats &c. and must give security in a sum equal to one fourth of the annual Jumma. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 25. § 29.

13. On the 28th August 1802, the Collectors were authorized to make the settlement of the first three years at an equal annual increase, in instances, where, from calamity of season, the landholder might be unwilling to agree to a fair equal annual Jumma. 1803 R. 25. § 30. C. 1.

14. On the 15th August 1802, the Collectors were directed to deduct the Nankar, not exceeding 10 per cent on the Jumma, from the assessment of such landholders as might engage for their lands, taking engagements from them for the net residue. 1803 R. 25. § 30. C. 2.

15. And it was determined, that the Nankar of such Zemindars, as declined to engage, or whose offers might be rejected by Government, should not exceed 10 per cent on the Jumma. 1803 R. 25. § 30. C. 3.

16. The Nankar is to be deducted from the actual produce in calculating the increase to be assessed at the expiration of each lease, and such deduction is to preclude the landholders from all claims to any further proportion of the increased produce. 1803 R. 25. § 31.

17. Landholders were authorized on 30th September 1802, to grant portions of land free of rent to the village watchmen in lieu of wages, but such lands are resumable on the death of the parties; and all lands, held rent-free by public or private servants in lieu of wages, and not forming part of the authorized Lakheraj grants within the provisions of Regulation 31 and 36, shall be considered as forming part of the Mulguzaree lands of the estate, and responsible like other Mulguzaree land for the revenue assessed upon the estate. 1803 R. 25.

19. The engagements shall specify, that, at the end of the three years, a new settlement for three years shall be made with an addition of two-thirds of the difference between the Jumma of the first lease and the actual net produce of the lands at its expiration; that, at the expiration of this second settlement, a new settlement for four years shall be made with an addition of three-fourths of the net increase of revenue during any one year of the second period: that, at the end of the ten years, a permanent settlement shall be made, for such lands as may be in a state of cultivation to warrant the measure, on such terms as Government may deem equitable; and that such persons, as fulfil their engagements for one period, shall have the option of renewing them for the subsequent. 1803 R. 27. § 53. § 2.

20. Claimants to lands, for which the present possessors have entered into engagements, who did not prefer their claims in six months from the proclamation of the 14th July 1802, shall not be entitled to possession till the expiration of the first triennial lease; and if they do not prefer their claims within three years, will not be entitled to possession till the expiration of the ten years; but claims may be preferred at any time within that period. 1803 R. 27. § 53. C. 3.

21. The settlement shall be made with the Zemindars if they offer an equitable Jumma; and if a Collector judge it inexpedient to form the settlement with a Zemindar, he shall transmit his proceedings to the Board of Revenue, detailing his reasons for rejecting the claim, with every information on the subject, and the Zemindar's answer to the objections. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 27. § 53. C. 4.

22. If a Zemindar decline, or the Board should reject his claim to engage for his estate, he shall be allowed the same Nankar which he received under the Vizeer's Government, not exceeding 10 per cent on the Jumma. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 27. § 53. C. 5.

23. When a proprietor declines, and where there are no proprietors, a village settlement for three years shall be made with the Mokuduins, Purdhans, or other respectable Rayats; but no person, not being a proprietor, shall engage for more than one Afulee village with its Dakhilee villages. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 27. § 53. C. 9.

24. If a Zemindary be in the actual possession of a mortgage or surety, the settlement shall be made with him; and the Zemindar shall be left to adjust his accounts with him or to sue in a Court of Justice. 1803 R. 27. § 53. C. 6.

25. Proprietors of dependant Talooks in large Zemindaries, if they have had long and undisturbed possession, shall make a separate and distinct settlement for their Talooks; provided they should be desirous of such separation, or the Zemindar should require it. 1803 R. 27. § 53. C. 7.

26. The Collector shall, in all doubtful cases, make the settlement with the person in possession; and either Zemindar or Talookdar, dissatisfied with the separation, or with a refusal of it, may sue in a Court of Justice. 1803 R. 27. § 53. C. 8.

27. Persons, with whom a settlement is made, whether proprietors or not, shall give security equal to one fourth of the stipulated annual Jumma. 1803 R. 27. § 53. C. 10.

28. And shall bind themselves, under such penalty as the Collector may fix, to grant Pottahs to Rayats who shall execute counter-engagements of a similar tenor. 1803 R. 27. § 53. C. 11.

29. In such Pottahs and Kabooliuts, all authorized Abwab shall be consolidated with the land rent into one Jumma, to be expressed in one gross sum; and the imposing of new Abwab shall be strictly prohibited. 1803 R. 27. § 53. C. 12.

30. The engagements with Government shall be exclusive of Sayer, Zemindary, and Thana-dary duties; and the Kabooliuts of actual proprietors shall contain a clause restricting them from collecting any duties; the Collectors shall fully explain the nature and extent of this restriction: no deduction shall be admitted on account of Nankar or pensions; which shall be paid from the treasuries of Government. 1803 R. 27. § 53. C. 13.

31. Actual proprietors, who pay their revenue direct to the Collector, shall be answerable for entertaining an efficient Police in their estates, subject to such rules as may be enacted; except in cities, large towns and principal Gunges. 1803 R. 27. § 53. C. 16.

32. When neither proprietors nor farmers tender suitable terms of settlement, a Khas or Bulee settlement shall be made with the Rayats at the rate of five eighths to Government and three eighths to the Rayat in Polich lands, two eighths to Government and 1803 and six eighths to the Rayat in Chunchur lands, one eighth to Government and seven eighths to the Rayat in Banjar lands. Banjar lands, after one year, shall be deemed Chunchur; and after two years Polih: Chunchur land, after one year, shall be deemed Polih: Nuzeranah shall be abolished; Putwaree's wages shall be borne by the Rayats, and the Musahut charges by Government: crops are to be valued at the price of the day; the Rayats shall engage that the cultivation of the lands shall not fall off, and that they shall not undertake the cultivation of new lands until they have accomplished that of the old. 1803 R. 27. § 53. C. 14.

33. The settlement of a joint undivided estate, if all the proprietors be not disqualified, shall be made with all the proprietors jointly; and they shall be required to elect a manager who is to have the exclusive management of the lands; the manager is to be elected by the majority of the votes present; or, if the votes be equal, by the greater interest of the voters; or, if the votes and interest be both equal, the manager is to be appointed by the Board of Revenue. 1803 R. 52. § 5. C. 1.

34. The determination of the majority is to be similarly binding on the rest in agreeing or disagreeing to the Jumma proposed for joint estates; but any sharer dissatisfied may obtain a division of the estate at his own expense. 1803 R. 52. § 5. C. 4.

35. The guardians of lunatics, minors, idiots, and others having guardians, are to vote in the election. 1803 R. 52. § 5. C. 2.

36. If the proprietors neglect to appoint a manager, the Collector is to nominate one for the approbation of the Board; and such manager, when confirmed by them, shall have the exclusive management: but the expense and responsibility are to rest with the proprietors. 1803 R. 52. § 5. C. 3.

37. These rules are not applicable to estates under managers appointed by the Court of Wards. 1803 R. 52. § 5. C. 5.

38. Istumrardars or Mokururecdars are declared exempt from all enhancement of their rent, if they clearly establish, from the conditions of their tenures, that they are not liable to any increase of rent, and that they have paid a fixed invariable rent during twelve years previous to the 10th November 1801. 1803 R. 30 § 12.

39. The triennial settlement, which will be formed at the expiration of 1212, and all future settlements, are to be made in the Lucnow 45 Sun Sicca Rupee; and the difference of the intrinsic value between the species of Rupee in which the existing settlement has been made, and the Lucnow 45 Sun Sicca Rupee, according to the table of rates, shall be deducted, and a settlement concluded for the residue. 1803 R. 45. § 17. C. 1.

40. But if a settlement be made previous to the publication of the table of rates, and to the commencement of the Fort St. George, a clause shall be inserted to pay Lucnow Sica Rupees, or the species of Rupees collected from the tenants &c. at the Bazar rates of Batta: subsequent to the commencement of the new coinage, and previous to the publication of the table of rates, the public revenue shall be paid in the new coin; or in the species of Rupees actually collected, at the Bazar rates of Batta: and such rates are to be inserted by the Collector in his treasury accounts: subsequent to the commencement of the new coinage, and to the publication of the table of rates, the Lucnow Rupee shall be received only at its intrinsic value. 1803 R. 45. § 17. C. 2.

41. The landholders, whose estates are Belkhas in consequence of their having declined to engage for the settlement, will be restored to their estates on agreeing to pay the affidavit required by the Government, but landholders, whose estates have been let in farm, will not be restored to their estates, unless the farmers consent to make over to them the whole of the land, and the Governor General in Council shall approve the transfer. 1805 R. 25. § 3.

42. The proprietary right of all Zamindars, Talookdars, and other landholders, possessing a right of property in the land, except all of their tenure, is declared to be confirmed and established under the authority of Government, in conformity to the laws and usages of the country, and to the Regulations of Government. 1803 R. 25. § 34.

43. The stipulation, that the first triennial settlement commencing with 1203 shall be increased in the proportion of two thirds of the difference between the annual amount of the first triennial settlement and the actual yearly produce at its expiration, is rescinded. 1805 R. 5. § 2.

A. D. 1805

44. The second triennial settlement shall be concluded at the same annual Jumma, which was payable by them under the first settlement, with such landholders and farmers as shall have fulfilled their engagements. 1805 R. 5. § 3.

45. Such, as have obtained remissions from Government, shall be considered to have fulfilled their engagements, if they have discharged their whole Jumma with the exception of such remission. 1805 R. 5. § 4.

46. In instances in which the first triennial settlement was concluded at an annual increase, the second triennial settlement shall be concluded at the Jumma payable on account of the last year of the first settlement. 1805 R. 5. § 5.

47. The Governor General in Council may authorize the conclusion of the settlement for the next three years, or for any proportion of the said period with any other

A. D. 1805 persons, for those estates or farms, the Zemindars, or farmers of which may decline renewing the settlement on the preferential terms. 1805 R. 5. § 3.

48. This Regulation is not to affect any settlements which may have already been concluded for the ensuing three years; nor to preclude the reletting of the Zemindars, under Section 33, Regulation 25 of 1803, to estates let in farm, at the expiration of the first triennial settlement. 1805 R. 5. § 7.

49. No settlement shall be considered final in the Ceded Provinces until it shall have received the sanction of the Governor General in Council. 1805 R. 8. § 18. C. 3.

2. RULES INCIDENT TO THE SETTLEMENT.

A. D. 1803 1. The assessment or portions of estates sold by public or private sale, and on the partition of joint estates, may be corrected in case of error, collusion or fraud; and the assessment made by the Collector shall not be final without the sanction of the Board. 1803 R. 25. § 19.

2. The settlement of resumed rent-free lands, not Badshahce, in the Ceded Provinces, is to be made with the grantee until ousted by the decision of a Civil Court. 1803 R. 31. § 4.

3. The settlement of a resumed Badshahce grant is to be made with the proprietor of the soil. 1803 R. 36. § 6.

4. All disputes respecting the proprietary right are to be settled in the Civil Courts. 1803 R. 31. § 4. R. 36. § 4.

5. The revenue of all resumed lands belongs to Government. 1803 R. 31. § 5. C. 1.

6. And is to be regulated by the rules of Regulation 27 of 1803. If the proprietor do not agree to the assessment fixed, a report is to be made through the Board of Revenue to Government; and the lands shall be farmed or held Khas. 1803 R. 31. § 5. C. 2. R. 36. § 6.

7. The assessment is payable from the date of the first decree adjudging the resumption. 1803 R. 31. § 14. R. 36. § 14.

8. Portions of estates sold in satisfaction of decrees are to be assessed according to Section 37, Regulation 25. 1803 R. 26. § 18.

9. And shares of estates divided. 1803 R. 26. § 36.

10. In the division of an estate, the whole estate is to be held liable for the revenue, until the division be finally adjusted, and each sharer put into distinct possession. 1803 R. 26. § 58. A D. 1803.

11. The Board of Revenue may make such alterations in the allotment of the public revenue on each share of a divided estate, as may appear proper, reporting it to Government. 1803 R. 26. § 48. C. 2.

12. If any error be discovered in the allotment of the shares within three years, Government may order a new allotment. 1803 R. 26. § 55.

13. No alterations in the allotment in divided Mchals, under the preceding Section, are to be made without sanction by the Board; and, in case of a reduction therein, not till sanctioned by Government. 1803 R. 26. § 60.

14. Government does not guarantee the truth of the accounts on which the allotment is allotted on lands sold at public sale, if the purchaser at public sale shall, within one year, prove to the satisfaction of Government, that the accounts upon which the Jumma was allotted were false, a new allotment will be ordered: the Collectors, on receiving such claims, shall make full inquiry, and report to the Board, who, if satisfied of the justice of such claim, shall submit it to Government; and, if not, shall reject it: and the claimer may appeal to Government. No such claim shall be received for past sales, if not preferred in one year from this date; except in cases of manifest fraud and error; and no addition shall be made to a purchaser's Jumma, unless he consent to it, for rectifying mistakes, rather than relinquish his purchase. 1803 R. 26. § 6. C. 1.

15. The Collectors are in all cases to take under their own management the settlement and collection of large Zemindari's, and of all such other lands as they can superintend without detriment to their general avocations. 1803 R. 27. § 53. C. 15.

16. Tehsildars shall be appointed to collect the revenue from the lands, for which a settlement may not have been made with the proprietor, and such other lands as the Collectors may place under them. 1803 R. 27. § 2. C. 1.

17. The Tehsildars are to be selected by the Collectors, but are not to be deemed actually appointed without the Board's sanction. 1803 R. 27. § 2. C. 2.

18. Each Tehsil-dar shall, in all practicable cases, be not less than two Lacks, nor more than three Lacks; where a Collector may deem a larger trust expedient, he shall report it to the Board of Revenue for reference to Government. 1803 R. 27. § 2. C. 3.

A. D. 1803

19. The Collectors shall be careful, that Tehsildars be principals and not agents for their sureties, and that they do not hold more than one Tehsildaree. 1803 R. 27. § 2.

C. 4.

20. The Tehsildars shall be allowed eleven and half per cent on the gross collections; in consideration of which they are to defray all charges of collection, and to be answerable for balances and Tucavee advances. 1803 R. 27. § 2. C. 5.

21. And to maintain an efficient Police, except in cities, towns, and principal Gunges. 1803 R. 27. § 2. C. 6.

22. They shall give security to be approved of by the Board, in a sum equal to the largest Kist of the year. 1803 R. 27. § 2. C. 7.

23. Shall be removable, after report to the Board, if in arrear to the amount of a whole Kist. 1803 R. 27. § 2. C. 8.

24. Shall make the usual Tucavee advances at the proper periods, taking bonds at twelve per cent interest, which shall specify the number of Baghas, and be attested by the Choudries, Chaugoes, and Mokudums. 1803 R. 27. § 2. C. 9.

25. All engagements, contracted by them, shall be in the name and on the part of Government. 1803 R. 27. § 2. C. 10.

26. Any person, proving to the Collector misconduct in the Tehsildar towards him, may, after reference to the Board, have his revenue direct to the Collector, on giving good security; but the Collector shall be careful, that the authority of the Tehsildars be not lessened on light grounds. 1803 R. 27. § 2. C. 11.

27. And if Government, on report of the Board, shall direct it, the collectors of large farms shall be paid immediately to the Collector, and not through a Tehsildar. 1803 R. 27. § 3. C. 17.

28. The various sorts of Rupees, current in the provinces, will be received in payment of the public revenue till the commencement of 1216, at the fixed rates specified in a table to be hereafter published. 1803 R. 45 § 18. C. 1.

29. But from and after the commencement of 1216, no other Rupees than the Lucknow four-five Sun Sica, struck at the Furrokhabad Mint, shall be received. 1803 R. 45. § 23.

A. D. 1803

30. On the death, removal or resignation of a Tehsildar in the Ceded Provinces, the Collector shall report through the Board of Revenue, and the Magistrate through the Nizamut Adaulut, the establishment necessary for the collection of the revenue and for the maintenance of the Police respectively; and the Governor General in Council will fix the allowance and establishment of the successor. 1806 R. 21. § 2.

the

31. Tehsildars, appointed under this Regulation, shall have the same power with the present Tehsildars, both as officers of revenue and police. 1806 R. 21. § 3.

32. And shall be responsible for the revenue of the Mehals within their Tehsildarces; but shall receive abatements for any loss proved, to the satisfaction of the Governor General in Council, to have arisen from the impracticability of realizing any balances of Zemindars &c. and for actual losses proved to his satisfaction in the Amance lands, and for any remissions granted by the Governor General in Council to any Zemindars &c. 1806 R. 21. § 4.

33. The personal salary and revenue establishment shall be paid to such Tehsildar by the Collector, and the Police establishments shall be paid by the Magistrate; and the expense shall be charged to the Revenue and Judicial departments respectively. 1806 R. 21. § 5.

3. RULES FOR THE MOFUSSIL SETTLEMENT.

1. A landholder, or farmer, who has made a settlement with Government, may let the lands of the estate, in whatever manner he shall think proper, under the prescribed restrictions, and consistently with the rights of the under tenants; but every engagement shall be in writing, and any thing received beyond it shall be repaid with double penalty. 1803 R. 30. § 2.

2. But no lease shall be granted by any person engaging for a triennial or quinquennial settlement, beyond the term of his own lease with Government; and all leases contrary to this prohibition are void. 1803 R. 47. § 2. C. 1.

3. Nor shall any lease be made by a person with whom a permanent settlement shall be formed, for more than ten years; nor a lease be renewed except in the last year; all leases contrary hereto, or in evasion of it, are void. 1803 R. 47. § 2. C. 2.

4. But leases to Talookdars may be cancelled or renewed at any time before their expiration, if by mutual consent and from no fraudulent motives. 1803 R. 47. § 2. C. 3.

5. Landholders, however, are not prohibited from selling or disposing of any part of their estates as a dependant Talook. 1803 R. 47. § 7.

A.D. 1803

6. And may grant leases to natives for any term, or in perpetuity, for the erection of houses and other buildings or for gardens. 1803 R. 47. § 8.

7. But the Jumma, stipulated between the parties for such dependant Talook, will not be entered on the public records; and such lands will be liable, with the rest of the estate, for the revenue of the whole. 1803 R. 25 § 37.

8. Pottahs, if the parties mutually agree, are to be for a specific sum for a certain quantity of land; but if the parties prefer to vary the rate according to the article cultivated, the Pottah shall specify the quantity of land, species of produce, rate and amount of rent, and term of lease, with a stipulation for the execution of a new engagement if the species of produce be changed; and, in such event, new engagements shall be executed accordingly. 1803 R. 30 § 6.

9. The rent, by whatever rule or custom regulated, shall be specifically stated in the Pottahs, which, in every possible case, shall contain the exact sum to be paid by the Rayats. 1803 R. 30. § 7. C. 1.

10. And, if adjustable on measurement after cultivation, or on survey of the crop, or payable in kind, the rate and terms of payment, and proportion of crop, with every condition, shall be clearly specified. 1803 R. 30. § 7. C. 2.

11. All persons, with whom a settlement is made, shall bind themselves, under such penalty as the Collector may fix, to grant Pottahs to the Rayats, who shall execute counter engagements of a similar tenor. 1803 R. 27. § 53 C. 11.

12. In such Pottahs and Kabooliats, all authorized Abwab shall be consolidated with the land-rent into one Jumma to be expressed in one gross sum, and the imposing of new Abwab shall be strictly prohibited. 1803 R. 27. § 3. C. 12.

13. Landholders &c. are to prepare a form of Pottah conformably to the prescribed rules, and adapted to the circumstances of their estates. 1803 R. 30 § 8.

14. And shall deliver such Pottahs at the expiration of the year 1215. 1803 R. 30. § 4.

15. Landholders, imposing any new Abwab on the tenants, shall pay a penalty of three times the amount. 1803 R. 30. § 5.

16. These rules are equally applicable to the renewal of Pottahs which expire or become cancelled under Regulation 47. 1803 R. 30 § 10.

17. Any disputes regarding the rates of Pottahs shall be decided in the Zilla Courts according to the established Perganna rates. 1803 R. 30. § 9.

CEDED PROVINCES.

18. Any refusal to deliver a Pottah shall be punished, on proof in the Civil Courts, by a fine proportioned to the tenant's expense and trouble. 1803 R. 30. § 11.

19. No farmer shall grant a Pottah beyond his own lease, nor an Agent without the authority of his principal. 1802 R. 30. § 11.

20. Every description of under tenants, who by the conditions of their tenures are not liable to an increase of rent, and have paid a fixed invariable rent for twelve complete years before the 10th November 1801, shall be exempt from all enhancement of their fixed rent by the proprietor, farmer or the officers of Government. 1803 R. 30. § 12.

21. Leases, not repugnant to the Regulations, are not affected by the division of an estate. 1803 R. 47. § 3.

22. Nor by a private transfer or descent or a public sale in execution. 1803 R. 47. § 4.

23. But in case of the estate being sold for recovery of arrears, all leases and Pottahs to farmers and Rayats, and all engagements with dependant Talookdars, shall stand void, and the purchaser may collect according to the rates of the Pergunna. 1803 R. 47. § 5.

24. No persons, contracting with or employed by landholders in the collection of their rents, shall take charge without a written Amilnama. 1803 R. 30. § 3.

25. Engagements of landholders and farmers with their tenants, &c. after the commencement of 1216, in any species of Rupees except the forty five Sun Lucnow Sicca, shall not be recoverable in Civil Courts; and all engagements, formed previous to 1216, are in all practicable cases to be in the forty five Sun Lucnow Sicca Rupees. 1803 R. 45 § 26.

26. Leases and engagements in estates under charge of Ameens for default of revenue shall not be infringed by the Ameens; and, where no engagements exist, the Ameen shall collect according to the Pergunna rates. 1803 R. 27. § 15. C. 1.

27. Or for sale in execution. 1803 R. 26. § 21.

28. Ameens, in charge of attached lands, are to collect the rents according to the Pergunna rates, notwithstanding engagements evidently collusive and contracted in expectation of the attachment. 1803 R. 27. § 15. C. 3.

29. All disputes between a purchaser of land at public sale and the under tenants are to be settled by due course of law, in like manner as they would have been between the under tenants and the former proprietor; but such purchaser may eject, without appli-

of the Adaulut. The Adaulut may, whose leases are cancelled and who decline to renew them on such terms as may be authorized to require 1803 R. 26. § 11

30. If an arrears of rent be liquidated within the current year, the defaulter, if an under farmer for the year only, can have no claim to any further lease, and though the lease may be renewed, the landlord has the option to annul it in consequence of his failure in the payment of the liquidated rent, or if the defaulter be a leaseholder or other tenant having a right of occupancy as long as the rent be paid, the landholder may, upon the defaulter's application to the Adaulut. 1803 R. 28 § 52 C. 7.

31. The tenants may sue the landholders &c in the Civil Court, and recover costs and damages for infringement of their rights, whether founded on Pottahs and other written engagements, or on prescription and established usage. 1803 R. 28. § 32. C. 7

32. No claim of purchase or mortgage on crops shall bar the claim to rent for the ground on which the crops grew. 1803 R. 28 § 17 C. 2

33. Dependant Talookdars are not liable to an enhancement of their rent unless proved to be so by the custom of the district, or the conditions of the tenure, or by having received abatements. 1803 R. 28 § 6 C. 1

34. Zemindars, exacting more than their right from a Talook, shall forfeit twice the amount and costs of suit. 1803 R. 47 § 6 C. 2

V. CONQUERED PROVINCES AND BUNDELKHAND.

1. At the commencement of 1813, a settlement for three years, except in Bundelkhand, will be formed for the land revenue, after separating the Sayer of every denomination, with the actual proprietors, unless disqualified by sufficient cause, at a fixed equal annual Jumma, and, where such a settlement shall not be practical, it shall be made at an equitable annual increase. but no settlement shall be made without the sanction of the Governor General in Council. The engagements shall contain a clause restricting the Zemindars &c from collecting any duties whatever, and such Zemindars, as are Huzoor-tehsil, shall be responsible for maintaining the Police, except in cities, towns, and principal Gunges 1805 R. 9 § 3.

2. At the expiration of the three years, a new settlement will be formed with the same persons, if willing to engage, for three years from 1816, with an addition of two thirds of the difference between the Jumma of the first settlement and the actual produce of the land at its expiration. 1805 R. 9 § 4

3. And, at the expiration of these three years, a new settlement will be formed with the same persons if willing to engage, for four years from 1219 with an addition of three-fourths of the net increase of revenue during any year of the second period. 1805 R. 9. § 5.

4. The settlement of the land revenue in Bundelkhund will be formed at the commencement of 1213 for one year, and three successive settlements of three years each will be formed at the commencement of 1214, 1217, and 1220. 1805 R. 9. § 6.

5. At the end of the ten years expiring with 1222, a permanent settlement will be formed with the same persons, if willing to engage, provided no person having a better claim shall come forward, for such land as may be in a state of cultivation to warrant the measure, on such terms as Government shall deem equitable. 1805 R. 9. § 7.

6. Those Zemindars, who decline engaging, or whose offers may be rejected, shall receive the same Nankar which they received under the former Government, not exceeding ten per cent. 1805 R. 9. § 8.

7. If a Zemindary be in the actual possession of a mortgagee or surety, the settlement shall be made with him, and the Zemindar shall be left to obtain possession by an adjustment of accounts or a judicial process. 1805 R. 9. § 9.

8. Separate and distinct settlements shall be made for small Talooks nominally included in large Zemindaries, provided the Talookdars should be desirous of it or the Zemindar require it: the Collector shall in all doubtful cases make the settlement with the person in possession; and either Zemindar or Talookdar, dissatisfied with such separation or with the refusal of it, may sue in a Court of Justice. 1805 R. 9. § 10.

9. When the proprietor declines, and where there are no proprietors, a village settlement shall be made for three years in the Conquered Provinces, and for one year in Bundelkhund, with the Mokudums, Purdhans or other respectable Rayats. 1805 R. 9. § 11.

10. When neither proprietors nor farmers tender suitable terms, a Khas or Boulee settlement shall be made with the Rayats, at the rate of five-eighths to Government and three-eighths to the Rayats in Polich lands, two-eighths to Government and six-eighths to the Rayats in Chunchur lands, one-eighth to Government and seven-eighths to the Rayats in Bunjur lands: Bunjur, after one year, shall be deemed Chunchur, and after two years Polich: Chunchur after one year shall be deemed Polich: Nuzeranah shall be abolished: Putwarree's wages shall be borne by the Rayats, and the Musahant charges by

10. A. D. 1805 Government: crops are to be valued at the price of the day: the Rayats shall engage that the cultivation shall not fall off, and that they will not undertake the cultivation of new lands till they have accomplished that of the old. 1805 R. 9. § 12.

11. All authorized Abwab shall be consolidated with the land-rent, and expressed in the Pottahs and Kabooliats; and nothing but what is there expressed shall be collected. 1805 R. 9. § 13.

12. Persons, with whom a settlement is made, shall bind themselves to grant Pottahs of the above description to the Rayats, who shall execute counterpart engagements of a similar tenor. 1805 R. 9. § 14.

13. And shall give security equal to one-fourth of the stipulated annual Jumma. 1805 R. 9. § 15.

14. Three years from the conclusion of a settlement are allowed for the delivery of such Pottahs. 1805 R. 8. § 20. C. 2.

15. The allowance of Nankar to such Zemindars as engage for the lands, not exceeding ten per cent on the neat Jumma, shall be deducted from the Jumma, and the engagement shall be for the residue. 1805 R. 9. § 16.

16. Claimants to lands, for which the present possessors have entered into engagements, who shall not prefer their claim in six months from the date of issuing the proclamation, shall not be entitled to possession till the expiration of 1213 in Bundelkhund, and of 1215 in the Conquered Provinces: if they prefer their claim in Bundelkhund after 1213, and before the end of 1216, they shall not be entitled to possession till the first triennial lease expire; and, if they do not prefer their claim in Bundelkhund before the commencement of 1217, and in the Conquered Provinces before the commencement of 1216, they shall not be entitled to possession till the expiration of the ten years; but claims may be preferred at any time within the ten years. 1805 R. 9. § 17.

17. If a Collector judge it inexpedient to form the settlement with a Zemindar, he shall transmit his proceedings to the Board of Revenue, detailing his reasons for rejecting the claim, with every information on the subject and the Zemindar's answer to the objections. 1805 R. 9. § 18.

18. The Collectors are in all cases to take under their own management the settlement and collection of large Zemindaries, and not to entrust the settlement or collection to a Tehsildar; and of all such other lands as they can superintend without detriment to their general avocations. 1805 R. 9. § 19.

19. And, if Government on report of the Board shall direct it, the collections of large farms shall be paid immediately to the Collector and not through a Tehsildar. 1805 R. 9. § 20. A. D. 1806

20. The Nankar is to be deducted from the actual produce, in calculating the increase to be assessed at the formation of each new settlement; and such deduction is to preclude the landholders from all claim to any further proportion of the increased produce. 1805 R. 9. § 21.

21. Landholders may grant portions of lands free of rent to the village watchmen in lieu of wages; but such lands are resumable on the death of the parties: and all land held rent-free by public or private servants in lieu of wages, and not forming part of the authorized Lakheraj grants within the provisions of Regulations 31 and 36 of 1803, shall be considered as forming part of the Malguzaree lands of the estate, and responsible like other Malguzaree land for the revenue assessed on the estate. 1805 R. 9. § 22.

22. Actual proprietors, whose lands are held Khas in consequence of their declining to engage, shall be restored on their agreeing to the assessment required in conformity to the prescribed rules: but those, whose lands are farmed, shall not be restored till the expiration of the lease, unless the farmer consent to transfer the lease to them, and the Governor General in Council shall approve of the transfer. 1805 R. 9. § 23.

23. The proprietary right of all Zemindars, Talookdars, and other landholders, possessing a right of property in the lands composing their tenures, is declared to be confirmed and established under the authority of Government in conformity to the laws and usages of the country and to the Regulations of Government. 1805 R. 9. § 24.

24. The assessment on portions of estates sold by public or private sale, and on the partition of joint estates, may be corrected in cases of error, collusion or fraud; nor shall the assessment made by the Collectors be final without the sanction of the Board. 1805 R. 9. § 25.

25. The first settlement of the land revenue in the Pergunnas of Sonk, Sonfa and Sahon shall be made for the years 1214 and 1215. The second settlement, for the years 1216 to 1218; and the third settlement, for the years 1219 to 1222. 1806 R. 12. § 5. A. D. 1808

VI. C U T T A C K.

1. The Commissioners in Cuttack issued a publication on taking possession of the country, notifying that all persons in possession of lands at the close of 1210 should continue in possession during 1211; that all demands for balances of former years should be cancelled, A. D. 1803

A. D. 1805 cancelled; that the revenue payable for 1211 should be ascertained according to the receipts of former years, deducting some oppressive Abwab and other exactions, allowing for losses from the failure of the first crop and for such part of the revenue as had been collected by the Mahratta Government. 1805 R. 12 § 2.

2. The above arrangements, abatements and remissions are hereby confirmed. 1805 R. 12. § 3.

3. The following proclamation was issued by the Commissioners on the 15th September 1804. 1805 R. 12 § 4. C. 1.

4. And all the rules, orders and declarations, contained in it, are hereby confirmed. 1805 R. 12 § 5.

5. At the commencement of 1212, a settlement for one year will be formed for the land revenue, after separating the Sayer of every denomination, with the actual proprietors unless disqualified by sufficient cause; and all landholders and Khandacts shall continue to perform the same duties for the preservation of the peace subject to the same responsibility as heretofore. 1805 R. 12. § 4 C. 2.

6. At the expiration of the year 1212, another settlement will be formed with the same persons, if willing to engage, provided they shall have conducted themselves to the satisfaction of Government, for three years at a fixed equal Jumna formed on a just consideration of the receipts of 1212 and former years. 1805 R. 12. § 4. C. 3.

7. At the expiration of the fourth year, a new settlement will be formed with the same persons, if willing &c, for four years, with an addition of two thirds of the net increase of revenue during any one year of the preceding lease. 1805 R. 12. § 4. C. 4.

8. At the expiration of the quinquennial lease in 1219, a further settlement will be formed with the same persons, if willing &c., for three years, with an addition of three-fourths of the net increase of revenue during any one year of the preceding lease. 1805 R. 12 § 4 C. 5.

9. And at the expiration of these eleven years in 1221, a permanent settlement will be formed with the same persons, if willing &c, provided no person having a better claim shall come forward, for such lands as may be in a state of cultivation to warrant the measure, on such terms as Government shall deem equitable. 1805 R. 12. § 4. C. 6.

10. The Nankar lands of Zemindars, who decline entering into engagements, will be subject to the payment of revenue with the other lands, but the Zemindar shall receive give in money an equivalent for the Nankar received during the Mahratta Government. A. D. 1805

1805 R. 12. § 4. C. 7.

11. If a Zemindary be in the actual possession of a mortgagee or surety, the settlement shall be made with him, and the Zemindar shall be left to obtain possession by an adjustment of accounts or a judicial process. 1805 R. 12. § 4. C. 8.

12. Separate and distinct settlements shall be made for small Talooks nominally included in large Zemindaries; and the settlement shall be made with the Mokudums for villages the revenue of which has been paid by them direct to Government upwards of five years: 1805 R. 12. § 4. C. 9.

13. When the proprietor declines, or where there are no proprietors, a village settlement shall be made with the Mokudums; but no settlement shall be made with a Mokudum for land not included in his Mokudumee. 1805 R. 12. § 4. C. 10.

14. If neither proprietors, Mokudums, nor other respectable Rayats, are forthcoming, the lands shall be held Khas. 1805 R. 12. § 4. C. 11.

15. All authorized Abwab shall be consolidated with the land rent and expressed in the Pottahs and Kabooliats; and nothing but what is there expressed, shall be collected. 1805 R. 12. § 4. C. 12.

16. Persons, with whom a settlement is concluded, shall bind themselves to grant such Pottahs to the Rayats. 1805 R. 12. § 4. C. 13.

17. And shall give security equal to the largest Kist of the annual Jumma. 1805 R. 12. § 4. C. 14.

18. The tributary Rajas shall continue to furnish the usual guards, and be subject to the same responsibility as heretofore; and shall receive an equivalent in money instead of being permitted to levy the tax called Choupunee or Mangun Khandactee. 1805 R. 12. § 4. C. 15.

19. The Nankar shall be deducted from the actual produce in calculating the increase to be assessed at the formation of each new settlement; and such deduction is to preclude the landholders from all claims to any further proportion of the increased produce. 1805 R. 12. § 5.

20. Actual proprietors, whose lands are held Khas in consequence of their declining to engage, shall be restored on their agreeing to the assessment required in conformity to the prescribed rules. 1805 R. 12. § 6.

A. D. 1805 21. The expiration of the year 1215 is the period fixed for the general delivery of Pottahs. 1805 R. 12. § 7.

22. This Regulation shall not authorize the resumption of the rents of any lands assigned by the Rajas of Berar, or by any actual proprietor of land, as endowments for religious purposes; but any quit-rent reserved by such grants shall continue to be paid. 1805 R. 12. § 8.

23. Nor the resumption of the rents of any lands appropriated for the support of the Police, subject similarly to quit-rent. 1805 R. 12. § 9.

24. All engagements for the revenue shall be made in Calcutta nineteen Sun Sicca Rupees; but Rupees of forts will be received at the Treasuries till the end of 1215 according to the table of rates in Section 14, Regulation 35 of 1793; and if any Rupees not mentioned in that table be current in Cuttack, the Collectors shall forward specimens to the Secretary in the Revenue Department for the purpose of being assayed; and the parties shall receive credit for the intrinsic value ascertained by the assay: a supplementary table of such rates shall be affixed in the Court-house and Collector's Cutcherry; but after the expiration of 1215, none except Calcutta nineteen Sun Sicca Rupees or gold Mohurs, shall be received in payment of the public revenue. 1805 R. 12. § 13.

25. The revenue on resumed rent-free land belongs to Government. 1805 R. 12. § 22. C. 1.

26. And shall be regulated by the rules for concluding the settlement of other lands; but, if the proprietors should not agree to the assessment so fixed, a report shall be made by the Collector through the Board to the Governor General in Council, who will determine the amount of the assessment: and, if the proprietors still refuse, the lands shall be held Khas, or let in farm. 1805 R. 12. § 22. A. D. 1797

18. On trials for murder, if the law officer of the Court of Circuit convict the prisoner of wilful murder, no reference shall be made to the heirs of the slain; but the law officer shall be required to declare the punishment to which the prisoner would have been liable under the Muhamedan law, if all the heirs entitled to demand Kiffas had prosecuted, at a legal age to demand it, and had demanded it; and the trial shall be sent to the Nizamut Adaulut whatever be the Futwa; and if the law officer convict the prisoner of any other denomination of homicide as distinguished by the Muhamedan law, he shall declare the penalty prescribed by the law, and the Court shall execute the sentence, commuting Deyut into imprisonment, or shall refer the trial to the Nizamut Adaulut if the sentence be imprisonment for life or if the Judge disapprove the Futwa. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 4. § 3. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 7. § 15. C. 2.

19. The Courts of Circuit shall similarly commute into imprisonment all pecuniary fines or Deyut awarded by the Futwa under the Muhamedan law for crimes other than homicide. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 14. § 4. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 7. § 39 C. 2.

20. On the reference of such trials, the law officers of the Nizamut Adaulut shall, in writing the Futwa, assume that the legal requisition of Kiflas has been made by the heir; and, if they acquit the prisoner of wilful murder, shall, if they convict him of any other denomination of homicide, add the legal penalty to which the prisoner is liable; and the Nizamut Adaulut shall pass sentence conformably to the Muhamedan law and its authorized modifications. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 4 § 4. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8 § 11.

21. If, in any case not provided for by the Regulations, the Muhamedan law appear to the Nizamut Adaulut repugnant to justice; the Court shall nevertheless adhere to it if in favour of the prisoner, and shall recommend pardon or mitigation if against him, and at the same time propose a new Regulation to provide against the recurrence of the case. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 4. § 4. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 11.

22. On a trial for perjury the law officers shall declare in their Futwa whether the prisoner be liable to Tush-beer according to the opinion of Huneefa as well as the corporal punishment to which they consider him liable according to the opinion of Yusef and Muhamed, and the Court shall sentence the prisoner to either or both modes of punishment according to the condition of the prisoner and the circumstances of the case. Beng. Ben. 1797 R. 17. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 7. § 40.

23. The distinction made by the Muhamedan law is not to be adhered to in cases of homicide by drowning or poison. Beng. Ben. 1799 R. 8. § 5. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 1.

24. Nor in other homicides on the ground of the prisoner being related to the slain or to one of the heirs of the slain, or the slain having been a slave, or on any similar grounds of personal distinction. Beng. Ben. 1799 R. 8. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 15.

25. Or on the ground of the prisoner having been requested by the deceased to put him to death. Beng. Ben. 1799 R. 8. § 3. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 16.

A. D. 1799 26. Or one or more of the prisoner's accomplices being exempted from Kiffas. Beng. Ben. 1799 R. 8. § 4. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 17.

27. The Pundits, in delivering their Bebusta on trials for Dhurna, are not to restrict themselves to the exact definition of Dhurna in the Shalter, but are to regard the common construction of that term in practice, whatever be the technical denomination. Beng. Ben. 1799 R. 8. § 6. Ced. Prov. 1804 R. 3. § 10. C. 3.

A. D. 1801 28. A person convicted of killing one individual in the deliberate intention of killing another, shall be liable to the punishment of murder notwithstanding any distinction to the contrary in the Muhamedan law; and all such trials shall be referred to the Nizamut Adaulut; and the law officers shall be required to declare the legal punishment to which the prisoner would have been liable if he had committed the intended murder. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 2.

29. The same is applicable to all other case declared by the law officers to be within the Muhamedan law of accidental homicide, if committed with a murderous intention, or in the intention of committing another crime, which, if committed, would have incurred a sentence of death. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 3. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 3.

30. In cases of accidentally wounding one person in the intention of wounding another, the law officer of the Circuit Court shall similarly declare what would have been the legal punishment of the intended crime. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 4. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 4.

31. And the law officers of the Nizamut Adaulut on the reference of such a trial. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 5. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 5.

32. The commutation of Deyut into imprisonment is not to be applied to these homicides; and, in homicides clearly unintentional and in prosecution of a lawful act, no imprisonment nor other punishment shall be awarded, though Deyut should be declared to be payable under the Muhamedan law. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 6. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 6.

A. D. 1803 33. In the revision of the criminal trials referred by the Magistrates in the Ceded Provinces previous to the 24th March 1803, the Court of Circuit is not to be guided by the modifications of the Muhamedan law established by the Regulations except for the commutation of mutilation, and where otherwise favourable to the prisoner. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 51. § 2. C. 5.

34. Nor the Nizamut Adaulut. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 51. § 3. C. 2.

A. D. 1803

35. But if persons convicted of murder or other heinous offences be exempted from punishment by any provision of the Muhamedan law, the Court of Circuit, if of opinion that the prisoner's release would be attended with danger, shall refer the trial to the Nizamut Adaulut with an opinion on the imprisonment to be awarded ; or may order the prisoner to be detained till he give security for good behaviour and appearance. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 51. § 2. C. 5.

36. On such referred trials the Nizamut Adaulut may pass sentence of imprisonment for life or any other period deemed sufficient, or may direct similar security to be taken from the prisoner before his release. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 51. § 3. C. 3.

37. The punishment of gang robbery shall not depend on the amount, value or description of the property robbed, nor be barred by the following, or any other, provisions of the Muhamedan law, provided the party convicted be adult and of sound understanding. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 3. C. 2.

38. The enumerated bars to punishment by the Muhamedan law are these ; one of the gang being under age, or a lunatic, or a relation to the person robbed, or having a joint interest in the property plundered ; or the person robbed not being a fixed resident under permanent protection, or the property not being in legal custody with respect to the robbers ; or the share of each robber not amounting to the specific value of ten Dirhems. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 1.

39. If no specific penalty have been provided by a Regulation for any crime, and the legal punishment by the Muhamedan law shall on any trial be mitigated by the Futwa, on the grounds of any legal deficiency in the evidence, the law officer shall be required to state what would have been the specific penalty on conviction by legal evidence, and the Circuit Judge shall sentence the prisoner accordingly or transmit the trial to the Nizamut Adaulut if referrible. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. R. 2. C. 3.

40. Also when mitigated on the ground of some special exception repugnant to equal justice. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 2. C. 4.

41. But when mitigated by the Muhamedan law from circumstances altering the nature, or diminishing the criminality, of the offence, the sentence shall not exceed nor equal the punishment prescribed by the Muhamedan law, unless expressly denounced by a Regulation. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 2. C. 5.

42. Nor shall any punishment be awarded on weak suspicion called in the Muhamedan law Wuhm, Shuk, or Shoobah Zaefah, and not amounting to strong suspicion.

A. D. 1803 called Ghalib zun, Akber rae, Shoobah cutvee, Shoobah shudeed. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 2. C. 6.

43 These rules are equally applicable to the Nizamut Adaulut. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 7. C. 2.

44. When neither a Regulation, nor the Muhamedan law, have provided a specific punishment, the Circuit Judge may on consultation with the law officers adjudge a sentence not exceeding thirty-nine stripes and seven years imprisonment. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 2. C. 7.

45. And in similar cases the Nizamut Adaulut may pass any sentence less than death, and shall propose a Regulation to provide for the case in future. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53. § 7. C. 3.

A. D. 1804 46. No sentence shall be passed on crimes committed in Cuttack between the 14th October 1803, and the promulgation of this Regulation, except such as is authorized by the Muhamedan law as it prevailed in that province during that period. Beng. 1804 R. 4. § 7.

47. Nor on crimes committed in the Conquered Provinces between 30th December 1803 (in Bundelkhund 16th December 1803) and the promulgation of this Regulation. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1804 R. 9. § 11.

A. D. 1805 48. No Regulation, enhancing the punishment of any offence beyond the Muhamedan law, shall be applicable to any crime committed within the settlements of Chandernagore and Chinfura before the promulgation of this Regulation. 1805 R. 16. § 3. C. 2.

49. In such cases the sentence shall be according to the Muhamedan law, with any modification favourable to the prisoner; except that in trials for murder, the Futwa and sentence shall be given without reference to the heir, on a supposition that the legal requisition of Kifas has been made. 1805 R. 16. § 3. C. 3.

A. D. 1806 50. And if in any case of an European, or descendant of an European, the punishment denounced by the Muhamedan law be more severe than the law which was in force at the time the settlement came into the possession of the British Government, the punishment shall be regulated by the law then in force. 1806 R. 16. § 3. C. 4.

Appeal, and by them to the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut, and by the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut to Government. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 2. § 18. C. 2.

17. After twelve years shall have elapsed from the 10th of November 1801, the Courts in the Ceded Provinces shall not try any suit if the cause of action originated twelve years previous to the institution of the suit, except on proof of demand and admission, or of claim preferred to a competent Court with satisfactory reason for not having proceeded in the suit, or of minority or other sufficient cause for the lapse, nor any suit of which the cause of action originated previous to 10th November 1801. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 2. § 18. C. 3.

18. The summary process for the recovery of rents shall not be applied to any arrear of rent due more than one year before the application for such process; but this shall not preclude the admission of any arrear due more than a year, in the adjustment of recent arrears. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 2. § 4. C. 1.

19. The same rule is applicable to summary suits of landholders and farmers against any of their Agents for accounts or money in their hands. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 2. § 4. C. 2.

20. Summary suits for dispossession, if the complaint should not be preferred within three months, shall not be heard, unless it be proved that the complainant was prevented from preferring it by sufficient cause. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 2. § 5.

21. The limitation of twelve years for the commencement of civil suits, (prescribed by Section 14, Regulation 3 of 1793, Section 8, Regulation 7 of 1795, and Section 18, Regulation 2 of 1803,) shall not be considered applicable to suits for the recovery of public revenue or for any public right or claim instituted on behalf of Government, with the sanction of the Governor General in Council, or by any public officer authorized to prosecute the same. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 2. § 2. C. 1.

22. Claims on the part of Government for the assessment of land held rent-free without legal title, for the recovery of arrears of public assessment, or any other public right, unless otherwise limited by some special provision, shall be heard and determined if preferred within sixty years from the cause of action, if it did not originate in Bengal, Behar and Orissa, before the 12th August 1765, in Benares before the 1st July 1775, or in the Ceded Provinces before the 10th November 1801. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 2. § 2. C. 2.

23. The above limitation shall not be considered applicable to private claims to land or other immovable property, if the person, in possession of the property, acquired the possession by violence, fraud, or other unjust and dishonest means, or if the property shall have been so acquired by the person from whom the actual occupant derives his title, and shall not have been subsequently held twelve years previous to suit under a just and honest title; provided such dishonest acquisition be established to the satisfaction of the Court trying the cause. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 2. § 3. C. 1.

24. In such cases, the plaintiff shall set forth the dishonest acquisition distinctly in his plaint or replication; and, if the defendant deny it in his answer or rejoinder, the Court shall examine the evidence adduced by both parties to the honesty of the title; and if the suit be deemed cognizable under this Regulation, the plaintiff's claim shall be heard notwithstanding the lapse of time. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 2. § 3. C. 2.

25. But no suit shall be heard if the cause of action originated sixty years before the institution of the suit; or, if the property shall have descended by inheritance to the person in possession twelve years previous to the suit; or such person, or any person in his behalf, or from whom he may have obtained it, or the whole in succession shall have held unmolested possession twelve years under a title by purchase, donation, or other title believed just and not appearing collusive. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 2. § 3. C. 3.

26. No length of time shall be a bar to the cognizance of suits in cases of mortgage or deposit, where the occupant acquired or held possession of the land merely as mortgagee or depositary, without any proprietary right; nor in any case where the occupant, or the person from whom he derived, shall not have held under a title believed to convey a right of property. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 2. § 3. C. 4.

27. No suit nor information for the recovery of a fine or penalty to Government, or to the informer, for the unlicensed manufacture or sale of liquors or drugs, the illicit manufacture or sale of salt or opium, for the fraudulent evasion of stamp duties, or any other fines or penalties recoverable by regular suit or summary process, where a specific period for the recovery may not have been fixed, shall be admitted and proceeded on, if not preferred within one-year from the commission of the act for which the fine or penalty is demandable, unless prosecuted on the part of Government, and sufficient cause be assigned why it was not sooner brought forward. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 2. § 6.

28. No suits for penal damages on account of any act or omission in opposition to a Regulation, in cases in which they are allowed by the Regulations to individuals, where a specific period for the recovery may not have been fixed, shall be received or proceeded on after after the expiration of one year from the time when the alleged cause of action may have arisen, without sufficient cause being assigned for not prosecuting it earlier; but this restriction is not applicable to suits for the recovery of property or its value, or for compensation on account of damage to or loss of property. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 2. § 7.

29. The 30th December 1803 in the Conquered Provinces, and the 16th December 1803 in Bundelkhund, shall be considered the period of limitation for taking cognizance of suits under the several provisions of Section 18, Regulation 2 of 1803, and of Sections 2 and 3, Regulation 2 of 1805. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 6. C. 2.

30. The Courts in Cuttack shall not hear any suit where the cause of action arose twelve years antecedent to the 14th October 1803. Beng. 1805 R. 14. § 5.

31. Nor, where the cause of action arose before the 14th October 1803, any suit the cognizance of which would not have been allowed, according to the usages of the Mahratta Government, to be taken by the persons vested with judicial authority. Beng. 1805 R. 14. § 6.

32. Doubts respecting the cognizance of such suits shall be stated to the Provincial Court of Appeal and by them to the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut, and by the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut to Government. Beng. 1805 R. 14. § 7.

33. After twelve years shall have elapsed from the 14th October 1803, the Court shall not hear any civil suit in Cuttack if the cause of action arose twelve years previous to the institution of the suit (except the suits described in Sections 2 and 3, Regulation 2 of 1805) unless on proof of demand and admission, or of claims preferred to a competent Court with satisfactory reason for not having proceeded in the suit, or of minority or other sufficient cause for the lapse, nor any suit of which the cause of action arose previous to 14th October 1803. Beng. 1805 R. 14. § 8.

34. The 17th April 1805 is to be the date for the limitation of suits in the Pergunnas ceded by the Raja of Bhurutpoor. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 12. § 4.

35. And the date for limiting the rate of interest. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 12. § 6.

A. D. 1803

A. D. 1803

21. The decisions of Judges in appeal from the decisions of the Registers shall be final, if the property, real or personal, allowed or disallowed by the Judge's decree, shall not exceed 100 Rupees; or if the claim be for Malguzaree land not exceeding 100 Rupees annual produce, or Lakheraj land not exceeding ten Rupees annual produce; or if the Judge's decree confirm the Register's decision, though for a greater amount real or personal: unless the Provincial Court of Appeal shall deem it proper to admit a special appeal in their discretion. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 8. C. 2. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 6. C. 6.

22. But are appealable to the Provincial Court of Appeal, if the Judge's decree, reversing the decision of the Register, allow or disallow an amount or value exceeding 100 Rupees; or if the claim were for Malguzaree land exceeding 100 Rupees annual produce, or Lakheraj land exceeding ten Rupees annual produce. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 8. C. 3. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 6. C. 7.

23. The rule, making the decision final in suits tried by the Judge in the first instance as far as twenty-five Rupees personal property, is rescinded; all suits tried by the Judge in the first instance, without a previous trial and decision by the Register or by a native Commissioner are appealable to the Provincial Court of Appeal. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 23. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 6. C. 4.

24. The decisions of Judges in appeal from the decisions of native Commissioners are declared final by Section 4, Regulation 36 of 1795; and their decisions in appeal from the decisions of the head Commissioners appointed by this Regulation, and of the Commissioners for suits concerning land in Chittagong appointed by Regulation 13 of 1797, are hereby declared final; unless the Provincial Court of Appeal shall deem it proper to admit a special appeal in their discretion. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 22. C. 3. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 6. C. 8.

25. The Provincial Court of Appeal is authorized to admit a special appeal from the decision of a Judge in appeal from the decision of a Register, or a Commissioner, in any case where the decree of the Judge shall appear erroneous or unjust on the face of it or from any information before the Court, or when the nature of the cause shall appear of sufficient importance to merit a further investigation. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 24. C. 1. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 9. C. 2.

26. But the Provincial Courts of Appeal are to exercise this discretion with caution. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 24. C. 2. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 9. C. 3.

27. The limitation of appeals from the decisions of Zilla and City Judges is not to affect appeals already preferred or which may be preferred against decisions already passed. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 25. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 9. C. 4.

IN RESPECT OF THEIR AMOUNT.

28. Nor shall it preclude the appeal to the Provincial Court of Appeal under Section 9, Regulation 2 of 1801, in cases where an appeal from the decision of the Register or of a native Commissioner may have been refused by the Zilla or City Judge or dismissed for default. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 26. C. 1. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 9. C. 5.

29. Nor preclude the Judge of the Zilla or City from revising his own decision under Section 2, Regulation 2 of 1798, if the petition for such review be presented to him before a special appeal shall have been admitted. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 24. C. 2. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 9. C. 3.

30. The rule, making final the decisions of Registers for personal property as far as twenty-five Rupees, is rescinded; all decisions of a Register are appealable to the Judge under Section 3, Regulation 36 of 1795. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 6. C. 3. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 16. C. 3.

31. The decisions of an Assistant Judge are to be held final or appealable to the Provincial Court of Appeal, according as the cause would or would not have been appealable if decided by the Judge. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 2. C. 6. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 12. C. 6.

32. All decisions of a head native Commissioner of law suits are appealable to the Zilla or City Judge. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 9. C. 8. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 16. § 26. C. 8.

33. And all decisions of a Munif. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 14. C. 9. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 16. § 29. C. 9.

34. The decisions of the Zilla Courts in the Ceded Provinces are appealable to the Provincial Court of Appeal if for Malguzaree land exceeding 200 Rupees annual produce, or Lakheraj land exceeding 20 Rupees annual produce, or any other real or personal property exceeding 200 Rupees value. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 2. § 21.

35. All cases wherein the Zilla and City Judges may refuse to admit and determine an original suit preferred, on the ground of delay, informality or other default in preferring it, or may discontinue it on the ground of some default without investigation of the merits, are appealable to the Provincial Court of Appeal whatever be the amount at issue. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 2. § 11.

36. Section 22, Regulation 2 of 1803, is rescinded; an appeal shall lie to the Provincial Court of Appeal from decisions of the Zilla Court, in all suits, which shall be tried by the Judges of those Courts in the first instance. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 6. C. 4.

2. FROM THE APPEAL COURTS.

36. The amount actually received, if less than the amount of the certificate, or the amount of the certificate, if less than the amount received, shall be the standard for fixing the sum to be paid to pensioners. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 24. § 8.

37. All pensions shall be issued from the Zilla Treasuries. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 24. § 9.

38. Pensions in Cuttack, granted by the Government of Berar, previous to 14th October 1803, shall be continued to the present incumbents; and shall descend to their heirs, or revert to Government, as may appear proper to the Governor General in Council; and pensions, received during three years antecedent to 14th October 1803, under whatever authority, shall be also continued to the incumbents, but shall revert to Government on their death, unless the Governor General in Council shall see reason for continuing them to the heirs. Nothing herein is to authorize the resumption of the established donation to the temples of Jugunnaut, Unfuttur and Seetaram. Beng. 1805 R. 12. § 30.

39. On any claim being preferred to a pension in the Ceded or Conquered Provinces, or Bundelkhund, not exceeding 100 Rupees, the Collector, after inquiring into the merits of the claim, shall submit his proceedings, with an opinion on the case, to the Board of Revenue, who shall finally decide, whether to admit the claim, or otherwise. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 22 § 2.

40. The Collectors in Bengal, Behar, Benares and Orissa, including Cuttack, are similarly to submit to the Board, for their final decision, the proceedings on claims to pensions not exceeding 50 Rupees. Beng. Ben. 1806 R. 22 § 3.

41. The appeal, allowed by Section 5, Regulation 24 of 1793, and Section 17, Regulation 24 of 1803, from the decision of the Collector and Board to the Governor General in Council, is superseded. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 22. § 3.

42. Any decisions, already passed by the Collectors on claims to pensions within the above specified sums, are not to be affected hereby: but the Collectors are to report in three months, to the Civil Auditor, a list of all pensions adjudged by them, or authorized by Government; and the Auditor is to be guided by such list in auditing the pensions, applying to the Board for orders in any case of doubt. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 22. § 4.

43. The Board of Revenue, on authorizing a pension not exceeding the above specified sums, shall notify it to the Civil Auditor: and pensions, authorized by the Governor General in Council, will be similarly notified to him; and no pension shall be considered to be authorized, except when so confirmed. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 22. § 5.

PENSIONS.

44. Collectors are to furnish the Civil Auditor with all other accounts or information which he may require; and shall adhere to any forms which he may prescribe. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 21. § 6.

45. On the death of a person entitled to a pension not exceeding the above specified amounts, the Board, after receiving the Collector's report, shall decide whether the pension, or any part of it, shall be continued to his heirs, but shall not confirm any such pension, except on the ground of poverty, or other substantial title to the indulgence of Government; and all applications for the continuance of pensions, exceeding those sums, are to be reported to the Governor General in Council for his orders. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 21. § 7.

46. Collectors are to ascertain whether the persons now receiving pensions are the individuals to whom the pensions were originally adjudged, and are to discontinue the payment, in case the original parties are dead, until the continuance or otherwise of the whole or a part shall be determined. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 21. § 8.

47. All pensions shall, where practicable, be commuted for grants of waste land, to be held free of rent by the grantees and their heirs in perpetuity, provided that it can be done with the consent of the pensioner himself; or, in case of religious endowments and hereditary pensions, with the consent of the successor. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 22. § 9.

48. In such cases the Collector shall ascertain, through his own officers, or through the Collectors of other districts, and report to the Board, where lands, capable of cultivation, and conveniently situated for the party, can be obtained. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 22. § 10.

49. And the Board shall report their opinion to Government, with a draft of a Sunnud for the land, according to the purposes of the grant, and the wishes of the parties; which Sunnuds are to be signed by the Chief Secretary, or the Secretary in the Revenue and Judicial Department, by order of the Governor General in Council. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 22. § 11.

50. The quantity of land so granted shall be such, that the rents, when brought into cultivation, shall be equivalent for the amount of the pension: but the Governor General in Council may increase or diminish that quantity, and will authorize the payment of a sum of money, not exceeding one year's pension, for bringing the lands into cultivation. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 22. § 12.

11. Duties are to be levied at various rates, according to the description and dimensions of stones excavated in the quarries of Chunar, Ghazepoor and Mirzapoor, on some by weight and tale. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 3. C. 1.

12. And on some by measurement. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 3. C. 2.

13. A statement of the duties, in the country languages, is to be fixed in some conspicuous place at each quarry. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 4.

14. All persons (including British subjects having leave to reside in Benares) are at liberty to excavate such stones under the following restrictions. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 2.

15. No further duty or customs shall be taken on the stones. Ben. 1800 P. 2. § 8.

16. But Government may increase or decrease the duties, and enact any other rules respecting them. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 14.

17. The duty is to be paid before the removal of the stones from the vicinity of the quarry. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 5.

18. The duty is to be paid into the Treasury of the Benares Collector, who, on receipt thereof, shall grant *Ruwana*s specifying the stones which may be removed, and the Ruwana is to be delivered by the party to the quarry Bardui who shall keep it as his voucher for the removal. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 5.

A. D. 1800

19. The Darogha shall endorse thereon the date of the removal, and transmit all Ruwanas monthly to the Collector, giving the party a Chorchittec for pafs for the stones removed; Daroghas shall keep lists of Chorchittec in a form prescribed by the Collector. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 8.

20. No more duty shall be taken on Chorchittees in any part of the Company's Provinces; and the exaction of any further duty, and all charges of corruption against the quarry officers, are to be prosecuted in the Dewannee Adaulut. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 9.

21. Applications for Ruwanas are to contain an exact list of the stones quarried, with all particulars of the number, dimensions &c. countersigned by the Darogha and measurer, who are required, on the application of the party, to weigh, count and measure all stones quarried. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 6.

22. Daroghas are to affix some mark of identification on the stones or heaps which they may have weighed, counted or measured; and, on suspicion of subsequent alteration, may again weigh, count or measure them: the whole quantity will be liable to confiscation on discovery of any fraudulent alteration. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 7.

23. Also stones removed from the vicinity of the quarry without payment of duties, together with the cattle and carriages. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 11.

24. The Collector shall nominate, for the approbation of the Revenue Board, Daroghas for the several quarries, who shall be sworn and give security and be subject to all the rules of Section 15, Regulation 3 of 1794; their establishments are to be fixed by the Collector, subject to the approbation of Government through the Board: the Collector may give them such instructions as may best prevent the removal of stones without payment of duties. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 10.

25. Daroghas &c. are to receive one half of the proceeds of stones confiscated through their means where there was no informer, and one quarter when they act on information, (with discretion vested in the Collector to distribute the reward among several officers according to their respective merits): and are to be dismissed if a seizure should be made without their interference, and the Collector should consider them deserving of it, besides a criminal prosecution for breach of trust if proved to have connived: informers are to have a quarter of the confiscation, and, if acting alone, the half of it: the Collector is to fix limits round the quarries beyond which no obstruction shall be offered to the transportation of stones. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 12.

26. All seizures of stones are immediately to be reported to the Collector, who may release them on proof that the duty had been paid, or that there was no intention to remove them without payment of duty; and shall cause the lessee to make adequate reparation to the owner, who may recover full damages and costs by suit, if due reparation shall have been refused: the Collector shall, on the contrary, confiscate the stones on proof of attempts to remove them without payment of duties, and shall advertise them for sale in not less than fourteen days: but the owner may bring a suit against the Collector in ten days from the date of such order, or subsequently on good cause shown for the delay if preferred before the sale; the Collector is to defend such suits through the Vakeel of Government, but no such suit is to be received after the day of sale. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 12.

27. All confiscations and sales shall be reported to the Board, with all accounts, &c. which may be required. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 13.

28. Clause 4, Section 82, Regulation 22 of 1795, exempting the hill inhabitants from duties on stones for their own use, remains in force; but the Collector shall instruct the Daroghas to prevent abuses of this privilege, which shall be punished by confiscation. Ben. 1800 R. 2. § 15.

QUIT-RENTS.

1. Malguzaree Ayma (or lands liable to a fixed quit-rent) if held under grants of the Muhamedan Government previous to the Company's accession to the Dewannee, or since granted by the proprietor of the soil for a valuable consideration, are to be separated from the Zemindar as independent Talooks; but if granted merely for bringing waste lands into cultivation shall remain annexed as dependant Talooks. 1793 R. 8. § 9.

2. Proprietors of Aymas, paying a quit-rent of 500 Rupees to Government, may be fined as far as 200 Rupees by Magistrates for abusive language, calumny, inconsiderable assaults and affrays. Beng. 1793 R. 9. § 8. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 4. C. 1. Cid. Prov. 1803 R. 6. § 8.

Ben.* 1803 R. 49. § 21. C. 2. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 17. C. 4.
11. Appeals from the decisions of the Register may, in the Judge's discretion, be referred for trial to the Assistant Judge. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 2. C. 2. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 12. C. 2.
12. Section 4, Regulation 36 of 1795, declaring decisions of Judges in appeal from

from the Register final as far as 100 Rupees personal property, is rescinded. Beng. A. D. 1803

Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 8. C. 1. Ceded Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 6. C. 5.

13. Decisions of Judges in appeal from the Registers shall be final, if the property real or personal allowed, or disallowed, do not exceed 100 Rupees; or the claim be for Malguzaree land not exceeding 100 Rupees, or Lakheraj land not exceeding ten Rupees, annual produce; or the Judge's decree confirm the Register's decisions though for a greater amount, whether real or personal, unless the Provincial Court of Appeal should admit a special appeal. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 8. C. 2. Ceded Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 6. C. 6.

14. But if the Judge's decree, reversing or altering the Register's decision, allow or disallow an amount or value exceeding 100 Rupees, or be in a claim to Malguzaree land exceeding 100 Rupees, or Lakheraj exceeding ten Rupees, annual produce, a further appeal shall lie to the Provincial Court of Appeal. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 8. C. 3. Ceded Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 6. C. 7.

15. Registers are to be guided in the trial of such further suits as the Judges are empowered to refer to them, by the rules of Regulation 8 of 1794, and by the general rules for the trial of civil suits. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 6. C. 2. Ceded Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 16. C. 2.

16. Provincial Courts of Appeal are authorized to admit a special appeal from the decision of a Judge, in appeal from the decision of the Register, in any case when the decree of the Judge shall appear erroneous or unjust on the face of it, or from any information before the Court, or when the nature of the cause shall appear of sufficient importance to merit a further investigation. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 24. C. 1. Ceded Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 9. C. 2.

17. But the Provincial Courts of Appeal are to exercise this discretion with caution; nor shall it preclude the Judge from revising his own decision if the petition for such review be presented to him before a special appeal shall have been admitted. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 24. C. 2. Ceded Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 9. C. 3.

18. The present limitation of appeals is not to affect appeals already filed, nor appeals from decisions already passed. Beng. Ben. 1803 R. 49. § 25. Ceded Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 9. C. 4.

19. Decisions of Zilla Judges in the Ceded Provinces in appeals from the decision of the Register are final. Ceded Prov. 1803 R. 2. § 21.

20. The limitation of appeals to the Provincial Court of Appeal, from decisions of Zilla Judges in the Ceded Provinces, in appeal from the decision of the Register, is to be the same as in Regulation 49 of 1803 for Bengal &c. Ceded Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 6. C. 5.

A. D. 1804

47. Process of Civil and Criminal Courts shall not be resisted in the invalid Thanas, under pain of such fine or punishment as the Courts are empowered to impose or inflict. Beng. 1804 R. 1. § 15.

48. The limitation for appeals to the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut, in cases of resistance to process of Zilla Courts in the Ceded Provinces, under Sections 23, 25 and 26, Regulation 23 of 1803, shall be 5000 Rupees. Ced. Prov. 1805 R. 8. § 7. C. 2.

II. IN REVENUE MATTERS.

A. D. 1793

1. If an actual proprietor of land shall resist, or refuse to obey, or escape from, or avoid, the Collector's process of arrest for revenue arrears, the Collector shall represent, through the Vakeel of Government, the case to the Zilla Court; who, if satisfied by the oath of two witnesses, shall affix in the Court room, in the Collector's office, at the residence of the defaulter, and in the Cuchery of the estate, a notice requiring the defaulter to surrender himself in four weeks; and the sequestration of the estate or farm ordered for the arrear shall continue. Beng. 1793 R. 14 § 15. Ben. 1795 R. 6. § 22. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 27. § 22.

2. If the defaulter do not surrender, or after surrendering be convicted on trial, the Court shall declare the estate of the proprietor, from which the arrear was due, forfeited to Government: if the decree be not appealed, or not appealable, or be confirmed in appeal, the Court passing the final decision shall send it to the Governor General in Council: if the Governor General in Council do not in four weeks commute the forfeiture for a fine, or mitigate the fine imposed, or pass any order on the case, the decree shall stand good; but no decree shall be carried into execution without an express order of the Governor General in Council: if the Zilla Court acquit the defaulter, the Collector shall obtain a copy of all the proceedings and send them with his objections to the acquittal to the Board of Revenue, who may authorize or not an appeal to the Provincial Court: if the Provincial Court convict the defaulter in appeal, they shall proceed as above; if they confirm his acquittal, or reverse an appealed decree of conviction, the Collector shall send the proceedings as above to the Board, who may authorize or not an appeal to the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut. Beng. 1793 R. 14. § 16. Ben. 1795 R. 6. § 23. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 27. § 23.

3. The same mode of proceeding is to be observed in case of resistance to the Collector's process by a Sudder farmer of land; with forfeiture of lease, similarly commutable. Beng. 1793 R. 14. § 19. Ben. 1795 R. 6. § 26. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 27. § 26.

4. And in case of resistance by a surety for a proprietor or farmer; with the penalty of a fine to Government according to his situation in life. Beng. 1793 R. 14. § 21. Ben. 1795 R. 6. § 28. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 27. § 28.

5. If such landholder be allowed to retain his estate, an account shall be rendered of the produce during sequestration; but if they be inadequate to the public revenue and the expenses of the sequestration together with any fine imposed, and he shall not make good the deficiency, a portion of his lands may be sold. Beng. 1793 R. 14. § 17. Ben. 1795 R. 6. § 24. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 27. § 24.

6. Government may confer a forfeited estate on the heirs of the offender, (and in such case he shall be released if in confinement;) or may order it to be sold and dispose of the proceeds. Beng. 1793 R. 14. § 18. Ben. 1795 R. 6. § 25. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 27. § 25.

7. If such farmer's lease be annulled, the Collector shall proceed against him for any balance due at the close of the year; and the farmer may sue the tenants, for any rents due while the lease was in force. Beng. 1793 R. 14. § 20. Ben. 1795 R. 6. § 27. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 27. § 27.

8. No appeal is allowed from a conviction of resistance to the Collectors by landholders, unless the forfeited estate exceed 1000 Rupees annual produce: the Collector is to state in the plaint whether the produce of the estate, from which the arrear is due, exceeds or falls short of 1000 Rupees; and any objections to the statement are to be inquired into by the Zilla Court, and Provincial Court of Appeal in case of appeal; and the Sudder Dewannee Adaulut shall admit or reject the appeal as may

I. RULES FOR THE AGENT AND HIS OFFICERS.

A. D. 1798

1. Salt Agents are amenable to Civil Courts for acts done officially in opposition to any Regulation. Beng. 1793 R. 3. § 10.

2. But not for acts done pursuant to a special order of Government or of the Board of Trade, unless leave be granted by Government on the petition of the party aggrieved. Beng. 1793 R. 3. § 11.

3. Any person, aggrieved by an act of a Salt Agent done in pursuance of special orders of Government or of the Board, is to present a petition to the Judge stating the grievance and praying the leave of Government to sue. On the transmission of the petition by the Judge, if Government should permit a suit to be tried for such an act, the Agent is to defend it under the directions of Government, or of the Board, through the Vakeel of Government: if Government be cast, the Agent shall send the decree and proceedings to Government, or to the Board, with a letter stating his objections; and Government will order an appeal or not as may be deemed advisable: costs and damages in such suits are to be defrayed from the public Treasury. Beng. 1793 R. 3. § 11.

4. This rule is to be observed in matters relating to the manufacture. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 33.

5. And in matters relating to seizures of salt. Beng. 1793 R. 30. § 11.

6. Every person appointed Agent for the provision of salt, is to be sworn before the Governor General in Council, or any person deputed by him. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 2.

7. Native officers of a Salt Agent, convicted in a Court of Judicature of embezzlements &c. shall forfeit double the amount, and be imprisoned for a period not exceeding twelve months; and, on the representation of the Board of Trade, may be declared incapable of again serving Government. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 15.

8. Salt Agents, their Assistants, and native officers, may be sued in Civil Courts for any breach of this Regulation; under the following modifications. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 22. C. 1.

9. From Katic to Afarh, Mólungees aggrieved by the Agent, must apply first to the Agent; and, on his not giving redress, may sue in the Court. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 22. C. 2.

10. Persons, aggrieved by an Assistant or head officer of a Kotee, shall first apply to the Agent, or first to the Assistant or officer, and afterwards to the Agent; and, if not redressed, may ultimately apply to the Court. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 22. C. 3.

11. Persons, aggrieved by a subordinate native officer, shall apply first for redress to the Agent, or first to the Assistant, or the head officer, and afterwards to the Agent; and, on the Agent not giving them ultimate redress, they may apply to the Court. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 22. C. 4.

12. Before the receipt of the suit, satisfactory proof must be given of the previous application to the Agent. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 22. C. 5.

13. But Molungees shall not go away for the purpose of complaining, without leave of the Agent. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 22. C. 6.

14. The Agent may defend suits against his Assistant and officers; but is in such case answerable for the decree. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 22. C. 9.

15. From Sawun to Afn, Molungees may carry their complaints originally to the Civil Court, or may apply to the Agent: the Court shall try all complaints of Molungees before other suits. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 22. C. 10.

16. Salt Agents may set aside or alter the awards given by their Assistants and head officers on complaints of Molungees. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 22. C. 7.

17. And the awards of Agents, Assistants, &c. may be appealed to the Civil Courts, if the appeal be preferred before the next season, or good cause be shown for the neglect. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 22. C. 8.

18. Process of Civil Courts upon Salt Agents and Assistants are to be transmitted in a sealed cover directed to their address, and are to be returned with an endorsed receipt. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 23.

19. Security is not to be demanded from Agents, Assistants and head officers of Arrang, but may be required from subordinate officers. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 28.

20. Communication between Agents, &c. and their pleaders at the Civil Courts, is to be in sealed letters transmitted through the Register of the Court. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 30.

21. Suits for acts done contrary to a Regulation, and not by order of the Board or of Government, are to be defended at the cost of the Agent, &c. through a private Vakeel. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 24.

22. But suits for acts done by order of Government, or of the Board, are to be defended at the expense of Government by the Vakeel of Government, or such other Vakeel as the Board or Agent may choose to employ. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 25.

23. If the Board should approve of any decision against an Agent, &c. in suits brought under Section 24, they may make him responsible for the whole or a part of the

A. D. 1793 costs and damages, but the Agents, &c. may appeal at their own risk. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 26.

24. If the Board should disapprove a decision in such a suit, they may authorize an appeal; and, in such case, the appeal shall be at the expense of Government. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 27.

25. Where the Board deem it expedient, or receive orders from Government, they are to superintend themselves the prosecution or defence of any suit or appeal. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 31.

26. Salt Agents, &c. are not liable to be sued for the acts of their predecessors, but suits of a private nature are to continue against the former Agent, &c. unless the Board of Trade should deem it advisable that the successor should carry on the suit: and suits of a public nature are to be continued by the successor. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 29.

27. Salt Agents &c. are to credit in their accounts all damages awarded to them, and debit, in such manner as the Board may direct, all costs and damages awarded against them; previously obtaining the sanction of the Board to the charge. Beng. 1793 R. 29. § 32.

28. Salt Agents &c. may be sued in the Civil Courts, for damages, for contravening any Regulation respecting the coin. Beng. 1793 R. 35. § 28.

29. The Regulations of Government, as printed and published, are to be sent to the Salt Agents. Beng. 1793 R. 41. § 11.

A. D. 1798 30. Lists of Salt Chokees, and of officers belonging to them, and reports of changes in the situation of the Chokees or in the officers, are to be furnished to the Civil Courts by the Board of Trade, Salt Agents, and Ameen. Beng. 1798 R. 4. § 2.

31. Summons on such officers as defendants in civil suits, shall be sent in a sealed cover, with copy of the plaint, either to the Board, Agent or Ameen, who shall send a person to take charge of the Chokee, and order the party to attend the Court. Beng. 1798 R. 4. § 3.

32. Summons to such officers as witnesses, shall be similarly served: but such officers are not to be summoned as witnesses, except when their attendance is necessary; and they shall be examined and dismissed with all speed. Beng. 1798 R. 4. § 7.

33. Summons on such officers by Magistrates, for bailable offences, are to be sent in the same manner; and the Board &c. shall cause the party to give bail or appear before the Magistrate. Beng. 1798 R. 4. § 4.

34. In unbailable offences, the warrant is to be executed in the usual mode: but the person

1. The sentences of the Nizamut Adaulut shall be regulated by the Muhamedan law, except where a deviation is directed by a Regulation. Beng. 1793 R. 9 § 54. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 12. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 9.

2. In the sentences of the Nizamut Adaulut on trials for murder, the distinction of the Muhamedan law, as to the mode of committing the murder, shall not be adhered to, but the intention, and not the manner or instrument of perpetration, except as evidence of the intention, shall constitute the rule. Beng. 1793 R. 9 § 75. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 42. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 1.

3. And the Nizamut Adaulut shall determine the manner in which the offender shall be punished, if deemed liable to death in the event of the offender being Kuffar, and if that offender of the proceedings, though the law should require him to be executed. Beng. 1793 R. 9. § 76. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 22.

4. And when the heir refuses to prosecute, shall pass such sentence as they would have passed if he had prosecuted. Beng. 1793 R. 9. § 55. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 22.

5. On trials referred to the Nizamut Adaulut, that Court shall pass the final sentence, after perusing the proceedings of the Court of Circuit, the Futwa of the law officer of that Court, and the Futwa of the law officers of the Nizamut Adaulut. Beng. 1793 R. 9. § 77. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 22. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 12.

6. The Nizamut Adaulut may recommend to the Governor General in Council pardon or commutation of punishment for prisoners sentenced to suffer death, if deemed objects of mercy. Beng. 1793 R. 9. § 79. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 22. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 14.

7. When witnesses are deemed incompetent on account of not being Muhamedans, the Nizamut Adaulut shall pass such sentence as they would have passed if the witnesses had been deemed competent. Beng. 1793 R. 9. § 56. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 22. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 7. § 25.

8. A copy of the sentence of the Nizamut Adaulut shall be sent within three days or sooner, under the seal of the Nizamut Adaulut and signature of the Register, to the Court of Circuit, who shall issue a warrant to the proper Magistrate for carrying it into execution; and the Magistrate shall cause the sentence to be executed without delay, and return the warrant with a signed endorsement certifying the manner of execution; warrants so returned shall remain with the Court of Circuit, except warrants for capital punishment which shall be forwarded to the Nizamut Adaulut. Beng. 1793 R. 9. § 78. ext. Ben. 1795 R. 16. § 22. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 13.

9. The Nizamut Adaulut, on trials for establishing Koorhs, may order mitigation or restitution of the fine, but the sentence of the Court of Circuit shall, until receipt of the order of the Nizamut Adaulut, be considered in full force and carried into effect. Ben. 1795 R. 21. § 4.

10. Persons, convicted of setting fire to a Koorh, are to remain in jail to wait the final sentence of the Nizamut Adaulut; who, if they approve the condemnation, shall sentence the Brahmen to transportation for life; or, if they see cause, shall recommend to the Governor General in Council pardon or mitigation. Ben. 1795 R. 21. § 7.

11. And similar sentence or mitigation on a Brahmen convicted of killing his women or children. And the Nizamut Adaulut may recommend to the Governor General in

A. D. 1795 Council mitigation of the sentence of banishment and forfeiture of the family; and, if they confirm the sentence, shall report it to the Governor General in Council; and the sentence of forfeiture shall not be carried into execution without the order confirming such sentence and directing the disposal of the property. Ben. 1795 R. 21. § 9.

12. The sentence of forfeiture shall not take place if the Governor General in Council should limit the banishment to the offender himself or to a part only of his family. Ben. 1795 R. 21 § 10.

13. The sentence of transportation on such Brahmen, for wounding any of his women or children, shall be subject to the same reference to the Nizamut Adaulut, commutation, or pardon. Ben. 1793 R. 21 § 8

14. The sentence on a Brahmen convicted of sitting Dhutha, shall not be executed till reported to the Nizamut Adaulut, and confirmed or mitigated by that Court. Ben. 1795 R. 21. § 11. C. 2.

A. D. 1796 15. The Nizamut Adaulut, after revising the proceedings on trials held by the Bhau-gulpoor hall assembly, shall confirm or alter the sentence or pass any other sentence deemed equitable. Beng. 1796 R. 1. § 13. C. 1

16. But sentences of mutilation shall be commuted into imprisonment of seven years for each limb, if the Nizamut Adaulut be satisfied of the prisoner's guilt, or for a shorter period, if the Court should deem it proper. Beng. 1796 R. 1. § 13. C. 3.

17. The Nizamut Adaulut shall sentence to death a prisoner convicted of murder if declared by the assembly guilty, and if he would have been liable to suffer death in case the heir had demanded retaliation. Beng. 1796 R. 13 § 4

18. But shall not pass sentence of capital punishment on any prisoner, not adjudged by the assembly to suffer death. Beng. 1796 R. 1. § 13 C. 2

19. And may recommend to the Governor General in Council pardon or commutation of punishment for prisoners sentenced to suffer death, it deemed objects of mercy. Beng. 1796 R. 1. § 13 C. 5.

20. The Nizamut Adaulut may recommend to the Governor General in Council pardon or mitigation of punishment for prisoners sentenced by the Futwa to a more severe punishment than shall appear to the Court just and equitable. Beng. Ben. 1796 R. 6. § 2. C. 1. Gad. Pres. 1803 R. 3 § 19. C. 1.

21. Stating their reasons at large for the recommendation. Behg. Ben. 1796 R. 6. §

32. And persons convicted of wilful murder by drowning or poisoning, whatever be the Futwa, if the intention of drowning or poisoning be evident. Beng. Ben. 1799 R. 8. § 5. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 1.

A. D. 1801 33. The Nizamut Adaulut shall sentence to suffer death, unless deemed an object of mercy, a person convicted of accidentally killing one individual in the deliberate intention of killing another, if the Futwa declare that he would have been liable to death in the event of his having effected the murder intended by him, or if he be liable to suffer death under the modifications of the Muhamedan law contained in any Regulation, and provided it be established to the satisfaction of the Court that he intended to commit deliberate and malicious murder; and all such trials shall be referred to the Nizamut Adaulut. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 2. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 2.

34. And a person convicted of having committed a homicide with a murderous intention, or in the deliberate intention of committing any crime, such as, if carried into effect, would have subjected him to a sentence of death. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 3. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 3.

35. On trials for malicious wounding, the Nizamut Adaulut, after considering the Futwa and proceedings, shall pass such sentence, short of death, as may appear adequate to the offence, or recommend pardon to Government. Beng. Ben. 1801 R. 8. § 5. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 8. § 10. C. 5.

A. D. 1802 36. On trials for human sacrifices, the Nizamut Adaulut shall pass sentence according to Section 75, Regulation 9 of 1793, whatever be the Futwa; or shall report to Government the case of any person deemed an object of mercy. Beng. Ben. 1802 R. 6. § 2.

BY THE NIZAMUT ADAULUT:

37 On the reference of trials for crimes committed in the Ceded Provinces before the Regulations, the Nizamut Adaulut is to pass sentence, after receiving the Fatwa of their law officers, and calling for further evidence if deemed necessary; and are not to apply the modifications of the Muhamedan law, except for mutilation, or when punishable for the prisoner. Ced. Prov 1803 R. 51 § 3. C. 2.

38 And in cases where the Muhamedan law exempts from punishment persons convicted of heinous offences, may sentence them to confinement for life, or any other period deemed sufficient, or may direct, that previous to their release, they give security for their appearance and good behaviour. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 51. § 3. C. 3.

39 With the above exceptions, the Nizamut Adaulut are to observe, in their sentences on such trials, the same rules as on other trials. Ced. Prov 1803 R. 51. § 3. C. 4.

40 Leaders of gangs and heinous offenders in robbery, attended with aggravating acts short of homicide, may be adjudged, by the Nizamut Adaulut, to death, if deemed deserving of it by the Nizamut Adaulut, if convicted of repetition, or of such a degree of cruelty as may be punishable with death under the discretion allowed by Secafut Beng. Ben Ced Prov 1803 R. 53. § 4. C. 2.

41 Leaders and heinous offenders in robbery, unattended with aggravating acts, may be adjudged by the Nizamut Adaulut to imprisonment and transportation for life, if deemed deserving of it by the Nizamut Adaulut, if convicted of repetition, or on proof of bad character, or of any aggravating circumstance. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53 § 4 C. 3.

42 In case of any extenuating or discriminating circumstance in any particular instance, or on consideration of the great number convicted of the same crime, the Nizamut Adaulut may mitigate sentences Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53 § 4 C. 5.

43 The Nizamut Adaulut may discharge a prisoner without reporting the case to Government, if the sentence have not been adjudged under a Regulation or the Muhamedan law Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1803 R. 53 § 4. C. 6.

26. When a Magistrate shall require military aid for the apprehension of offenders, or for the maintenance of the peace, he shall state in writing as fully as practicable the nature of the service to the Commanding Officer, leaving him to judge of the strength of the force. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 11. § 14. C. 1.

27. The allotment of the force will rest with the Commanding Officer; but he is not to exercise any discretion in granting or withholding the required aid, as the responsibility of calling for military aid will rest with the Magistrate; who is enjoined to confine his requisition to cases of absolute necessity, and to make an immediate report to Government with the fullest information respecting the circumstances. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 11. § 14. C. 2.

28. The Commanding Officer will also transmit immediate reports of such detachments to the Commander in Chief. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 11. § 14. C. 3.

29. Any civil officers, requiring a permanent guard from a regular corps, shall state the nature of the service to the Commanding Officer, who shall furnish a guard of such strength, as he may deem necessary; unless any objection occur to a compliance with the application, in which case he may suspend compliance, and refer the case to the Commander in Chief, who will decide upon it, or refer it to Government. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 11. § 15. C. 1.

30. And the same for a temporary escort. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 11. § 16.

31. Judicial officers are required, on receipt of this Regulation, to transmit to the Governor General in Council, and Revenue and Commercial officers to the Boards of Revenue and Trade respectively, a statement of the permanent guards required by them; and the Boards shall submit such statements, with their remarks, for the orders of Government. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 11. § 15. C. 1.

32. No augmentation shall be made in the permanent guards without the express sanction of Government. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 11. § 15. C. 2.

33. Judicial officers are required to transmit to Government, and Revenue and Commercial officers to the Boards of Revenue and Trade respectively, on the first day of each month, a statement of all guards, detachments and escorts employed in the preceding month; and the Boards shall report to Government whenever of opinion that such guards &c. were not requisite. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 11. § 17.

34. The same rules are to be observed where provincial battalions are stationed, if any emergency should render the services of the regular corps necessary. Beng. Ben. Ced. Prov. 1806 R. 11. § 18.

33. But any civil officer in Calcutta or its vicinity, requiring a guard, detachment, or escort, must apply to the Governor General in Council through the prescribed channel of correspondence. Beng. Ben. Gen. Prov. 1806 R. 11. § 19.
